

Amendment

to the Declaration of Condominium

of

Cambridge B CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION Inc.As Recorded in Official Records, Palm Beach County, Florida:Book 1985, Page 1433

As used herein (unless substantially reworded) the following shall apply:

A. Words in the text which are lined through with hyphens indicate deletions from the present text.

B. Words in the text which are underlined indicate additions to the present text.

C. Whenever an ellipsis (. . .) appears in the text this indicates that this portion of the present text remains intact to the point where the next typewritten material appears.

ARTICLE XIII. of the Declaration of Condominium is amended as follows:

XIII.
USE AND OCCUPANCY

The owner of a unit shall occupy and use his apartment unit as a single family private dwelling, for himself and the adult members of his family, and his social guests, and for no other purpose. No children under fifteen (15) person under the age of fifty-five (55) years of age shall be permitted to reside in any of the units or rooms thereof in this Condominium, except that children under the age of fifteen (15) may be permitted to visit and temporarily reside for reasonable periods in any calendar year.

The Board, upon application and review, may grant exceptions to occupancy and allow a limited number of persons under the age of fifty-five (55) years to occupy units within the condominium when the Board finds undue hardship to the applicant.

All prospective owners, lessees or occupants shall be notified of this restriction and must show proof of age. This restriction and its enforcement is not an admission that the condominium in any way engages in interstate commerce or is in any way subject to Federal laws on housing.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the above amendment does not affect the interests of the lessor of the long-term recreational lease and was approved by in excess of seventy-five percent (75%) vote of the total eligible vote of the Association at the membership meeting held on March 5, 1989.
