The sub-leasing or sub-renting of a unit owner's interest shall be subject to the same limitations as are applicable to the leasing or renting the unit prohibited. The Association or Management Firm, shall have the right to require that a substantially uniform form of Lease or Sub- Lease be used, or in the alternative, the Board of Directors' approval of the Lease or Sub-Lease form to be used shall be required. After approval, as herein set forth, entire units may be rented provided the occupancy is only by the Lessee, his family and guests. No individual rooms may be rented, and no transient tenants may be accommodated. Where a Corporate entity is the owner of a unit it may must designate the occupants of the unit as it desires, and for such period of time as it desires, without in compliance with the provisions of Section A of this Article XI. The foregoing shall not be deemed an assignment or sub-leasing of a unit, and shall be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions of the first paragraph of Article XIII of this Declaration.

Provided, however, each owner shall use such apartment as a private dwelling for himself or herself and his or her immediate family, and for no other purpose including business purposes. Therefore, the leasing of apartments to others as a regular practice, for business speculative investment, or other similar purposes is not permitted. To meet special situations and to avoid undue hardship or practical difficulties the Board of Directors may grant permission to an owner to lease his or her apartment one time during the ownership of the apartment, to a specified lessee.

The provisions of this Amendment shall not apply to leases already reviewed and approved by the Association as of the effective date of this Amendment. However, this Amendment shall apply at the expiration of any such existing leases.
