March 2009

You may soon see our guards wearing different uniforms with the insignia of Weiser Security instead of the familiar U.S. Security. The delegate assembly almost unanimously voted to make the change after learning that in order to meet UCO's budget for security, U.S. Security cut the hourly wages of some of the guards by one dollar an hour. Weiser not only will pay the guards more, but also provide a savings when compared to the U.S. Security contract.

A few weeks ago, I found out that despite the fact that UCO pays the fees for several of our volunteers to be Notaries, only official documents of UCO were being notarized. I felt this was unfair, since in effect we all pay part of the fees. So, from now on, the notaries at UCO will notarize the signatures on any document that a resident needs to have notarized — at no charge, of course.

Elsewhere in this issue, you will find the biographies of candidates for the position of Vice President and members of the Executive committee. I urge you to read these carefully, and inform your delegates of your preferences. If you are a delegate, I urge you to poll your residents and be sure to represent their choices when you vote on March 6th, 2009. The voting will take place between 8 and 9 a.m.

Remember: only delegates can vote.

I would also like to encourage everyone to attend UCO's installation luncheon on March 15th. Please call Mary Patrick Benton at the UCO office with your reservation.

Some residents questioned why our buses do not shut down their engines when stopped for more than 15 minutes. After meeting with Rick Capri, owner of the bus company, it was decided to experiment with one bus to see what, if any, the fuel savings would be. The other side of the coin, according to Rick, is that the constant re-starting of the motor will increase the maintenance cost because of the wear and tear on the vehicles. He also told us that the thermostat in the bus is set at 74 degrees and cannot be changed by the driver. The driver can only control the speed of the fan.

The cable committee is hard at work. As of this writing, we have received one proposal and hope to get three more before the next delegate meeting. At that time we hope to be able to vote on a new contract.

Now that we are in our new building, we have several openings for additional volunteers. Please call Mary or Edie at the UCO office if you are interested. A few hours a week is all that it takes; we will train. \Box

"To be off or to be on" that is the question.

The Transportation Committee, in an effort to continue its efforts to reduce budget costs, recognizes that fuel is always at the top of the list. At two meetings, we had David Israel and Ed Black as guests who wanted to present research information they had been compiling from the Internet. The title of their presentation was "Idling Myths and Facts" from a company called Natural Resources of Canada.

We cannot include every numbered "Myth," but cars in Canada do not affect buses in Florida. Should you be interested in the full report, it will be available at the UCO Office.

Myth: Restarting a vehicle is hard on the engine and starter. Their answer: Restarting a car many times has little impact on engine components. Fact: Buses, 10 cylinders at that, our vehicles presently are turned on and off 22 times per day (we already have an on and off schedule in place). To turn them on and off every trip would relate to 64 times per day or 434 times per week. This is over three times as much wear and tear on the starters, timing chains and other components. More important is where and when the starter might not work such as an internal run which could possibly leave residents stranded or possibly even need a tow to the garage which could cost up to $250 per tow. For now these items are

The week of January 20, 2009, the Motor Coach Convention was held in Orlando, Florida. During an exchange of ideas, the name Natural Resources Canada came up. This company sells to individuals with private vehicles. They also give classes entitled "What's New in Fuel Economy" where they sell their products. Their Internet information is a sales tool for environmental conscious individuals for private vehicles. UPS is mentioned in their info; however, remember they can raise their rates (which they just did) to cover any additional repairs on maintenance.

Last year, the Transportation Committee set up a stop and restart schedule; should you be interested in reading this also, it is available at the UCO Office.

In the meantime, we always appreciate your input and are not closing the door on any pertinent information which can save us money. Therefore, I am inviting you to join us on March 16, 2009 at 1:30 p.m. at the Clubhouse in Classroom B and let us know of anything you may have heard, read or experienced that could be of assistance to us. If you have such information, please call me at the UCO Office and I will schedule a meeting with you.

Bus Stop: Unfortunately, by the time you read this, Albertson's will have closed, but on the bright side, Bealls should be open.

Post Office: At this writing,

Lost... By Dot Loewenstein

We missed you on January 28th, when the Excursion Bus was boarding at 1:30 as announced. We had a schedule to maintain, and waited until exactly 1:45 before leaving for home without you. We had to assume you decided to travel further. We just missed you and wanted to let you know we cared.

...and Found

Vice President Sal Bummolo contacted me to explain that you relied upon the departure time as (mis-) printed in the UCO Reporter. Perhaps you were napping when I verbally announced (yes, I was on the bus) that we would leave at 1:45, and the bus would board at 1:30 — three times I did this. I also spoke to each individual as they exited the bus upon arrival, and repeated (for the 4th time) that the bus would board at 1:30 and leave on time at 1:45. It is usually assumed that an oral announcement takes the place of a written notice in case of a change. We apologize for the printing error in the UCO Reporter, and will follow thru on making the correction in the March issue.

As for anyone else reading this, please be aware that the fourth Wednesday, monthly, trip to Delray usually attracts more than 48 residents. Because of this, we use a deck of 48 cards (not 52 — remember, the bus has only 48 seats) as "boarding passes". Early arrival at the clubhouse means you are "dealt" Hearts, next to arrive receive Clubs, then Diamonds, and finally Spades. When all the cards have been given out, that means there are no more seats, even though the bus hasn't yet arrived. No ticket, no seat on the bus.

Thank you all for your cooperation. See you on February 25. PS:

Frankly Speaking Vice President Frank J. Cornish

In this month's column I'd like to address the up-coming UCO Elections, as you may or may not know, two Vice Presidents' positions will need to be filled...and of course, the Executive Board.

This is an extremely important election, more so than in the past, many issues will need to be addressed, and the decisions made by those elected will impact each and every resident, on a daily basis. It is of the utmost importance that each President consult with the residents of their respective buildings to whom they feel would best serve their interests...and cast their vote(s) accordingly...please read the bios of those individuals that appear elsewhere in this publication, discuss their history, goals, etc. Obviously most candidates endorsed by the committee are well known to the community, as they have served in some capacity for many years; however, consideration should be given as well to those nominated from the floor.

There is no room for apathy, at this crucial time...our economy is continuing to decline; we need to explore new ideas.

Voting will take place on Friday, March 6, 2009, from 8 to 9 a.m.; please give your residents a voice by casting their choice, not yours, for Vice Presidents and Executive Board Members...

If I can be of some assistance, do not hesitate to contact me at the UCO Office, 683-9189.

changed via a maintenance schedule to avoid any inconveniences to our riders.

Continuing on, the report included numerous points to save fuel. This is available at the UCO Office.

While interesting at best, this can't apply to our 10-cylinder buses on which we have scheduled maintenance. In addition, the weather conditions in Canada surely do not match ours in Florida.

Investigations David Frankel Louise Gerson

We are now in our new offices. Please come into our office for answers to your questions about specific investigations. We cannot tell you over the phone because everything in Investigations is Confidential. We need to know who we are talking to.

Everyone in our Village must be investigated. All residents must go through a criminal check. Those who are not renters must have their financial and criminal backgrounds investigated. We are a Senior Community, which means we must be 55 or older.

Anyone who was not investigated should not be living here!!!! It is up to the Association Board Members to inquire if someone is in an apartment who has not been investigated.

Only those who have been investigated and issued a Certificate of Approval from our office should live here.

All new Rentals are handled here in Investigations along with sales, deed transfers, additions and request for new occupants.

When a renter (who has been investigated) wants his/ her lease renewed, the Association must bring a letter giving their approval to the ID office in the Clubhouse. The ID office will issue renter an updated ID card. This procedure is also for occupants who have been investigated and wish to continue living here after one year.

Do you live here full time and wish to help in this department? Please come in and talk with Louise.

Many thanks to Charlie, Henri, Abe, Jack, Sandy, Cynthia, Sid and Ed, our helpful dedicated team of Volunteers.

Thoughts on the Century Village Election

Very soon, we will be having our annual election for two new Vice Presidents of UCO. I think every delegate should give a lot of thought as to what type of person they want to be their next Vice President.

Their records should show that they have contributed their time and effort toward helping Century Village residents. Remember, we should not elect a candidate whose only interest is to further their own agenda to get power. It is up to the delegates of Century Village to make sure that they elect the

> From the Listening Post Syd Kronish

I just had a "senior moment."

Many Century Villagers make this remark when they have forgotten a name or a place or a thing. Suddenly the keys seem to get lost more often and the dates on the calendar disappear.

Behind this anxious comment is a dread fear of a more serious problem of a displeasing disease.

According to a lengthy article in U.S. News and World Report, this concern is discussed. The report notes that about 40 percent of people 65 and older have age-related impairment. The report also shows that naturally as we grow older our brain declines accordingly. But not to worry. There is good news to report on the subject. Here's what is proven to help keep your brain in peak form, say the scientists who have studied the subject. Medical experts emphasize the best brain-saving strategy is physical exercise and mental activity. People who are active do better on most tests. Medical mavens also tell us that mental exercise does help.

Retirees with hobbies, parttime jobs and volunteers to help others are less likely to acquire disability diseases.

Another help aid is a good diet. Studies show that adults who eat a reduced fat diet live longer and healthier. Foods high in anti-oxidants, such as berries and leafy green veggies are important. The answer is just eat healthy.

But forgetfulness is not a problem of "old age" alone. Kids do forget where they put things, to give messages from phone calls and to wash their hands before eating and going to the bathroom. Lately we have seen headlines that decry the fact that top financiers and politicians forgot to pay their taxes. Let's look at the right side. Some lapses are normal, but with age comes wisdom. So enjoy life with your family and friends, stay active, both physically and mentally. You can do all of this by participating in many of the activities that the Village has to offer, the classes, the gym and the social groups. How about becoming a volunteer? \Box

What makes safety work? When we get up in the morning and get ready to go out to do those daily errands, do we think about how we will do them? Meaning, when I first get to my vehicle, do I look around the auto to see if there are any danger signs, like leaking fluids, low tires from a leak or flat tires? Has my car been hit while parked? Any damage? No nothing? Great!

Next, we unlock the vehicle, which I hope had been locked the night before. I get in...before starting the engine, do I look at my mirrors? See if they need adjusting. Is the seat the way I left it or does it need to be readjusted? If it does, do I adjust it properly so that I am comfortable and I have a good view of my mirrors and gauges? Next, I start the engine, wait a few moments till the car warms up, place the vehicle in gear with my foot on the brake. Next, I start to back out of my parking space — wrong!!!

Look before you start moving your car. Many accidents happen because of improper backing, not looking. We are all guilty of this. Check your left and right side and your rear view mirror.

Slowly, at idle speed, keeping your foot lightly on the brake pedal, back out just in case you need to make a sudden stop. Please remember, you may think you have the right of way, you do not. The approaching vehicle has the right of way at all times. Now very courteous driver and may stop to allow you to back out! However, chances are, they will not be. So do not expect this to happen.

When you exit your property, do you become a defensive driver or an offensive aggressive driver? What's the difference? A defensive driver will always watch what is happening around them and be prepared to act in the event something happens. They obey all the traffic and safe driving rules and regulations. An offensive aggressive driver will be just that. They do not pay attention to what's happening around them and will be the cause of a traffic accident, or worse, road rage.

When you are driving, is your mind on what you need to be doing as far as running those errands, or are you paying attention to the conditions around you? I hope you are paying attention to the conditions around you!

When you drive, are you in such a rush that you are constantly in the left lane? Or are you driving keeping to the right? Always allow yourself time to go to doctor appointments (and other appointments) so that you do not have to rush. Rushing does nothing but cause problems on the roadway. Leave a few minutes earlier if necessary; take your time! There is an old saying, "haste makes waste," and this is very true.

In closing, I hope this little article has given you something to think about and make us bet-

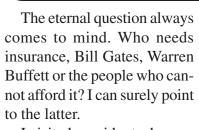

At the Library By Chuck Waugh Books-on-CD at the Okeechobee Blvd. Branch Library

Audiobooks have been popular for many years. They are usually recorded by a professional actor who can vividly read the text to enhance the storytelling process. Many library users listen to audiobooks while commuting to work or when traveling on trips. Some listen to them while working around the house. Others just enjoy listen to the spoken word, in order to "read" a book. A broad variety of Books-on-CD are available at the library for check-out. They circulate for two weeks for a one-to-six disc book, and for four weeks for a book consisting of seven discs or more.

The Okeechobee Branch Library is located next to Dunkin' Donuts. The hours are: Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. All Village residents, including seasonal residents, are eligible for a free library card with proper ID. March Programs

Insurance Dan Gladstone

I visited a resident who was well into her golden years and lived on a modest Social Security check. She told me that because her income was low she could not afford to buy an insurance policy. I asked her how she would pay for casualties in her apartment or how she was planning to pay for an assessment by the her Association for insurance casualty to the common areas that could reach the thousands (I left my heart outside the door before entering)? She is the ultimate candidate for insurance policy.

There is a growing problem in Century Village that I must address. As many of you know, every unit owner must have insurance coverage for his unit, but there are some that object to this fact. These people do not care what would happen to their neighbors or to the Association property in case they are at fault. Their only motive is to save money on insurance premiums. Such action might have destructive consequences.

Here are some horror stories of the month:

Horror story #1. A few weeks ago, six apartments were badly damaged in a matter of hours because of a broken pipe. The estimated cost of the water that reached a few inches high was in the thousands for each unit. According the repair" of the six units. Where is the money going to come from when two of these units have no insurance? The Board will have to assess all the units and maybe put a lien on the debtors. This is by far more costly than the insurance premium.

Horror story #2. A vacant apartment that was not in use for a very long time had a small leak from the apartment upstairs. The insurance adjuster and I could not breathe without a special mask that doctors use in operations because the place was intoxicated with mold. The repairs of the damage was estimated at $33,000 including the remediation, have to be "undertaken by the association." Two of the six units did not carry insurance. The board has to asses each of the sixteen units more than $2000 each. Is that cheaper than buying a policy? Ten times no.

Horror story #3. A broken pipe damaged a ground floor unit that did not carry insurance. Beside damage to the walls, there was substantial damage to the interior. Because of lack of insurance, the owner was blaming and harassing the board for a long time and demanded compensation. I had to referee and show that that the board acted in a proper manner and that there was no negligence involved.

CV Fund (formerly CV Foundation) News Getting off the ground

For those of you who might not have read the article in the January Reporter, an organization has been formed with the aim of helping Villagers in financial need. It was to have been called CV Foundation. We were just beginning to get our sea legs at that time. Now there is some progress to report.

One of the first things we had to do was change our name! We thought "CV Foundation" would do, but come to find out from Tallahassee, that name has been used elsewhere, so we've changed our name to "CV Fund." Our corporate papers have been filed, and we have now become an official nonprofit organization, Jean Dowling reports. CV Fund should be easy to remember.

About 25 people attended our initial organizational meeting, and several committees were formed. There is a committee in charge of fundraising, a committee in charge of advertising, and a committee in charge of technical support. A food committee will be pursuing the purchase of food in bulk from food banks, as mentioned in the January Reporter article. There is also a follow-up committee that will be assisting people who need help beyond the scope of CV Fund, and there are those doing the writing for articles and brochures. Those of you who attended the January delegates meeting at the clubhouse may remember Mark Pafford, our new Florida House of Representatives delegate, who replaced Susan Bucher. Susan had asked Mark to assist us in any way possible, as the CV Fund project was one she was very interested in having become a reality. Mark has been equally enthused about the venture and has given us a list of valuable contacts. These contacts will provide us with a network of assistance, interaction and direction where needed. WPRF's Mark Levy and others will be giving us such leads as well.

Our mission, simply put, is to provide assistance in the form of money, goods, and advice to those among us in the Village in poorer circumstances. We welcome contributions from all sources, both individuals and groups. Already, some of our associations have voted at their annual meetings or board meetings to give contributions of $100-$200. Vendors are being asked to donate. Are you a member of a CV club? Why don't you ask — perhaps the club will donate.

On Wednesday, February 4, an Open House Health Fair was held at the Clubhouse in the morning. Connie Kurtz and her committee spoke with a number of residents who attended, giving an overview of the CV Fund project, and providing brochures and handout sheets with a cutout portion for making a donation.

How about you? Are you in need of help? We are not in a position yet to render the financial assistance we hope to be able to in time, but we would be glad to put your name on a list to receive help. Call Jean Dowling at (561) 640-7606. Do you want to make a donation or contribute in any other way, or do you have questions? Again, please call Jean at the number above.

A personal request, though: Please be patient with Jean. She has had recent knee surgery and, unfortunately, a setback following it, requiring her at the moment to be on

Goodbye to a Friend

On Sunday, January 11, the family and friends of Ira Fiedler had the sad task of saying goodbye to him. Ira was a long time member of the golf club, and one of the good guys. His humor and wit will be sorely missed. He was a fine golfer, a former club champion, and always fun in a foursome.

Goodbye dear friend. Olav Hasholom. Rest in peace.

It is great to have everyone back for the season. The Visitor's Gate traffic was almost 19,000 cars for the month of January which is about 4,000 more visitors than in the month of November. Please remember to callin your visitors. When someone arrives at the gate house without a call-in or they cannot remember your address or phone number, a traffic jam occurs while we try to help get them in.

Again, thank you for not breaking the gate arms. We had six transponder gate arms broken this January compared to 23 in January 2008. We improved the transponder lane speed bump so that it is not as sharp a bump, but it remains two inches high at the top so please stop before crossing it.

Warning: To All Association Presidents

Remember: Never hire any unlicensed contractor, electrician, or handyman. If are apyou proached by someone saying your buildneeds ing work, call Security and please report the person's name and telephone to Jerry Karpf in the UCO office at 683-9189.

Our fellow drivers are doing much better in following directions when exiting the Clubhouse shows, allowing residents to get home sooner. Also helping is the wider road at the drop off area so that cars can pass while you let your riders out.

I received a letter of thanks from a resident describing the professional and polite manner of service they received from a Guard. This letter has helped us to select this month's Guard of the Month. Thanks for letting us know the good things that happen.

On January First, UCO combined the gate and outside guards with the clubhouse and health club guards under one contract. This allowed us to get a small savings in our expenses. \Box

Last season and during this season, I have recommended you take a chance on some of the shows. Not only on performers you have never heard of, but on last minute replacements. These performers know they must be the best they can be, so they can be rated into the yearly selections. Those of you who missed the replacement for Dixie's Tupperware Party, missed a great evening. Comedians, Rossi & Hackett, were replaced by Andre & Cirell, and on February 22, Lambchop was replaced by Mark Verselli. These performers gave their all, so you were not disappointed.

In the meantime, I cannot believe I am already giving you the final chapter in our season, so please do not miss out. The list of March performances can be found in the WPRF Office. Reminder: Mark your 7:00 p.m. shows so you don't miss half of the show.

The end of the show season is sad for many as our Northern friends will be leaving us. Please know that the usher corps has enjoyed seeing you laugh, dance in your seats, clap your hands and even get on stage and become part of the show. Special of all to us are your smiles and thanks as you exit the theater. They really make it worth being there for you.

A few weeks ago, the usher corps received very special and exciting news. Our service has saved approximately $60,000. (A breakdown of this amount may be obtained from Anita Cruz.)

The Commoner by John Burham Schwartz is a woman's book written by a man. It is a novel based on truth.

The story is told by Haruko, the first "commoner" to marry into the Imperial family when she becomes the bride of the Crown Prince of Japan and how her life is shaped by the inner circle of court life. Schwartz captures the double standard that exists between the role of women in the Imperial family and the evolving role of women in Japanese society after WWII.

Haruko's "life becomes a series of rituals written in another age." Customs dictate her relinquishing her son's upbringing to servants and the control of her life to her motherin-law, the Empress. The author tells of the sense of powerlessness and isolation that marks both royal life and bad marriages and the effect that a strict code of conformity and silence can have on a person. He describes the struggle against imperial traditions that are as ancient as the country itself.

Attimes, I almost believed I was reading an actual account of this woman's life. The myth-like tale comes full circle as Haruko becomes the Empress and has the opportunity to befriend her son's wife, with consequences both tragic and dramatic.

The Washington Post reveals that "writing about the Japanese Imperial family can be a risky business." Publishers of other books are sometimes unable to place ads for them in any major Japanese newspaper.

I found this book to be a fascinating and well researched piece of historical fiction which presents a picture of life unknown to most readers. \Box

SAMARITAN MEDICAL CENTER GOOD Stroke-Care cellence.

Good Samaritan Medical Center is now a State-Certified PRIMARY STROKE CENTER

Dear Friends,

This year approximately 700,000 Americans will have a stroke and over 150,000 will die of it, making it the #3 cause of death and a leading source of serious, long-term disability.

Recently, in recognition of our dedication to improving these outcomes for patients in our community, the State of Florida's Agency for Health Care Administration has designated Good Samaritan Medical Center a Primary Stroke Center. To attain this certification, Good Samaritan has had to meet strict protocols — and follow rigorous standards for clinical care.

Mark Nosacka Chief Executive Officer Good Samaritan Medical Center

These standards cover everything from our Acute Stroke Teams and Emergency Services to our administration of the clot-busting drug tPA, neuro-imaging, lab services, patient education and improvement activities...even our systems for continually enhancing our clinical performance and treatment plans.

This designation joins Good Samaritan's other awards for healthcare excellence, including:

- CIGNA Center of Excellence for Chest Pain, Irregular Heartbeat, and Stroke
- American Heart Association Award of Distinction for Coronary Artery Disease and Heart Failure

Of course, our most important rewards come from improved outcomes for Good Samaritan patients, resulting from our ongoing dedication to quality care and continual enhancement of our services.

To learn more about Good Samaritan's Primary Stroke Center and our full range of quality medical services, please visit us online at www.goodsamaritanmc.com

Sincerely, AA.

CERT

Community Emergency Response Team By Phyllis Siegelman and Joy Bales

On February 4, 2009 a health fair was held in the party room of the Village. It was very successful and all had a great time. CERT had a table and was kept quite busy with people wanting to know all about what CERT is doing.

A committed CERT volunteer is one who when a disaster occurs may become a first responder. That first responder will operate by a system similar to Triage. This is the main reason volunteers are needed.

The Century Village CERT meetings are held on the third Monday of each month. Our February meeting has been canceled — President's Day Holiday.

- March 1, 2009 CERT drill at John Prince Park, 9 a.m. to 12 p.m.
- March 16, 2009 CERT meeting 6:30 Room C, Workshop "Psychological First Aid"
- April 20, 2009 CERT meeting 6:30 Room C, Workshop "The Power of a Positive Attitude"

Please join us for our next meeting. For more information please call Phyllis Siegelman, 471-7750, or Joy Bales, 379-6529. □

The Ages

This is dedicated to all of us who sit back and wonder what happened to our lives. Youth knocked on my door. I let her in. We chatted gaily for awhile and then we parted.

I did not see her leave. I was too busy...entertaining. Middle age dropped by to say hello.

I tried to bribe her with sweets

but she was in a hurry. She slammed the door rudely behind her while I was busy...entertaining.
Old age crept in.
I never heard her enter
but only she consented to remain at my party.
She promised to clean up the mess I made when I was

Insurance

Continued from Page 5 damage including the remediation was estimated to be about $50,000. He carried only $16,000 on his dwelling insurance. He also was after his Board of Directors to pay most of his damages because he was "underinsured" Here also I had to show that the Board acted properly and that there was no call for negligence.

We are at the beginning of a new year. Be sure to request from your maintenance companies' "proof of insurance" where your Association is "an additional named insured," not just a "certificate holder."

Library Committee

By Dot Loewenstein

Many residents enjoy our Clubhouse Library and comment on how comfortable they feel when in there. But recently someone spotted one of our volunteers discarding paperbacks and was horrified. This person then suggested that we donate them to the V.A. hospital. Well, not all of us drive, but if anyone reading this can take the time to drive there with paperbacks, please let us know and we'll set them aside in a large bag for you.

Some volunteers have pub-in hopes that someone will take them so we don't have to discard them. If they remain a week, then we do put them in the yellow trash bin.

Signs were placed so we could segregate History and Biography subjects, but with all the seasonal visitors back (and we welcome them), there are so many people picking up books and forgetting where to return them that it is almost impossible for us to keep up with the system. Certainly, if you stop in for a moment and spot a book with a blue circle "tag" on it, feel free to place it with the other History books. Same thing with green tags for Biographies. You don't have to be on the committee to fix something that is obviously wrong.

The largest section of hard cover books is Fiction, sorted by the author's surname. Thus, the first bookcase should contain authors named Adams to Evans, for example. Then the second bookcase would contain authors named Follett to Higgins, for example. There will be signs as guides, but we cannot always depend on which authors are present. Look for the little red dot and see if there is a letter of the alphabet printed on it. "S" would then indicate someone like Sheldon or Sanders and would go in the third or fourth bookcase.

As for paperbacks, it is almost impossible to sort them, because of the high turnover. When we can find time, we try to put all the female authors under Romance and all the male authors under Suspense. Not foolproof by any means, but it's an attempt. Always, remember we are volunteers, and instead of complaining, why not join us? Leave your first name and phone number across the hall with Marge or Noreen. Thank you!

lic library experience and follow the guidelines they have been taught there. One of these is to discard paperbacks that are in poor condition by tearing off not only the cover, but the first five or six pages. Please respect our volunteers who are doing what they were told to do. As the saying goes, "there will always be more books."

We don't tear up the hard cover books that are in poor condition, but we do place them outside the library on various tables around the lobby and elsewhere. Quite often we write about why those books are outside the library. They are there

Continued from Page 2 reported on the successful meeting re the Roles of Association Board Members and Unit Owners and this will be repeated in April.

Transportation: There will be a meeting on March16 at 1:30, Clubhouse Room B.

CERT: Joy Bales, Chair, announced there will be a meeting on March 16, 2009 in Room C at 6:30 p.m.

Next week, we will have a meeting with OEO; UCO had no role in this. We have insurance and our deductible is $5,000. We are still on the hook.

Signs: Re a suggestion that we change our signs — Pat Blunck reported that some signs need to be updated. Will be taken care of.

Remember how often I mentioned hot water tank alarms? One Sunday morning I was awakened at 5:30 a.m. by a noise that sounded like thousands of crickets fighting. While looking thru the apartment, I stopped in the kitchen and realized the sound was my hot water tank alarm. After removing the stove, less than an inch of water was located around the tank. If it had not been for the alarm, we would have had a flood in a day or two. A word to the wise: get a hot water tank alarm — it could save you a lot of aggravation. These alarms can be purchased at Lowes.

We're having a major problem with raccoons in our village. One man has been clawed and is undergoing treatment for rabies. Do not go near any raccoons when you see them. Immediately report this sighting to your Association President so a trapper can be hired to catch them. They are capable of opening the lids on the Dumpsters to obtain any food that has been discarded. Your Association President should have the Property Management Company arrange to have a lock-down bar placed on all Dumpsters.

Another scam is taking place by a man saying he represents one of the maintenance companies. He claims to have done some work on the Association's property and wants to get paid for his services. Don't pay him! All extra work that is done by your property management company should be billed. If possible, try to get the name and car tag info of this scam artist, and pass this info on to the Sheriff immediately.

Prior to our March 10 meeting we will have a workshop to reinforce all the information from the December 18 class by Mr. Raphan, the Assistant Ombudsman from the Department of Condominiums, representing Chapter 718. This workshop was a great leap forward for many board members and association presidents, in understanding how to put together a reserve budget that everyone could understand.

Some time ago, a sample reserve budget was presented, but many people had difficulty understanding how it worked. This showed two different types of reserves: The first one, marked Copy #1, showed an association just starting off in creating a reserve budget. Mandatory items were: roof replacement, building painting, repaying the parking lot, and additionally, waste pipe replacement and concrete restoration.

Copy #2 showed what a budget would look like six or seven years later. It was designed to be simple enough to be understood by everyone. Basically, a reserve budget adds money to your line item every year, and subtracts any monies that were spent, such as painting the building, or

I have been a member of the Century Bowling League for at least 25 years and it had been in existence long before I joined it, making this organization one of the oldest going in the Village.

Sure, time has eroded the number of participants. However, during the years, two clubs, namely the Italian-American Club and the Christian Club, each have organized bowling activity. Had these bowlers joined the Century League, it would have maintained the size of the Century League.

The point here is that bowling activity has not diminished in the Village.

Bowling is a great indoor sport partaken by all ages, groups and sexes.

We do our bowling at Verdes Tropicana in West Palm.

The fee for bowling is $7, which pays for bowling and the luncheon at the end of the season, where trophies are awarded for various prizes. It's a lot of fun and good exercise.

We welcome anyone who is interested in this sport; just call me at 683-1106 for details.

Let's go for a season of fellowship and competition at the Hastings Clubhouse every morning from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. We meet the last Thursday every month. Membership is open to every CV resident.

Election of Officers will be held in February. Luncheon for members is scheduled for March 19 where trophies will be presented to the winners of the 9-Ball Tournament. which will be held Thursday, February 12. Prizes are awarded to the first and second winner of each class.

The next meetings of the club will be on February 26 and March 26. For information, call John at 683-3957 or Ted at 682-3130.

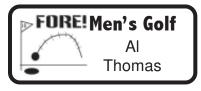

The Turtle Bay Ladies Golf League winter season is well underway. The highlight of January was the Annual Luncheon on January 27. Over 50 ladies celebrated a successful year at the Fountainview with entertainment by the Turtle Bay Tootsies and League members Honey Sager, Jean Scilliano, Norma Brown, Renee Kreisworth and Adele Ruderman and Jan Darien as Jokester. All original tunes were written by Jean. Out-going President Cynthia Greenblat installed our 2009 new officers: Dot Rogers, President, Pat Mongiello, Vice President, Sylvia Whiting, Secretary, Carolyn Cohn, Treasurer and Sally McCarey, Assistant Treasurer. Gerry Weiss, our Birdie and Ringers guru handed out 25 Birdie pins and an award for an Eagle for 2008.

2008 Tournament winners received their trophies in A & B categories for 9 hole and 18 hole play. Pat Mongiello and Susan Maldonado, Tournament Chairs, awarded trophies to 18 Hole Class A winners: 1st Place, Kay Anson, 2nd Place, Barbara Cornish. Class

B winners: 1st Place, Pat Mongiello and 2nd Place (tie) Adele Ruderman and Evelyn Tainsky. 9 Hole Class A winners: 1st Place, Anna Lopiccolo, 2nd Place (tie) Gloria Avignone, Marilyn Radonski, Rosemaire Vitullo. Class B winners: 1st Place Sandra Beaty, 2nd Place Alice Herschman. We look forward to our 2009 Tournament to be held at Turtle Bay this March.

Every Tuesday our golfers compete for "low net" and birdies. January 6th, 9 hole winners were Class A — Lopiccolo and Avignone (tie), Class B — Anderson (1st), Chayes (2nd). 18 hole winners were Class A — McGrory (1st), Libby (2nd), Class B – Shirman, Lasalle (tie). Birdies, Whiting, A Libby, B Libby and McGrory. January 13th winners were 9 Hole - Class A — Avignone (1st), Lopicollo (2nd), Class B — Chayes (1st), Anderson (2nd). 18 hole winners were Class A — Scilliano (1st), Rider (2nd), Class B ---Mongiello (1st), Borders (2nd). Birdies, Whiting, Sandomenico, LaSalle. January 20th 9 hole winners were Class A — Vitullo, Class B — Chayes. 18 hole winners were Class A — Weiss (1st), Bannister (2nd), Class B — Maldonado, Mongiello (tie). Birdies, McGrory, Sandomenico, Shirman.

Congratulations to all our players and special thanks to our Committee Chairs, Luncheon Committee and Officers. Our next meeting is February 24 at Turtle Bay. Lady golfers interested in joining the Turtle Bay Ladies Golf League, please contact the Membership Committee, Renee (471-8856), Edie (686-5143) or Debbie at the Clubhouse for information and membership applications. Play is every Tuesday at 8:00 a.m.

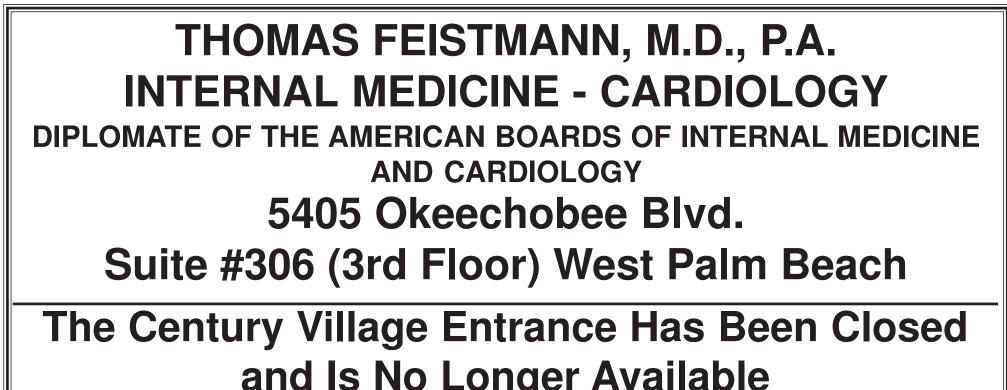

Our season is progressing well under the stewardship of Pres. Arnie Edelstein, with the help of his board: Len Weiss, Arnie Indyck, Ken Katter, and Secretary Al Thomas.

Our President's Cup tourney starts this month, and will culminate with a gala bouquet at the Doubletree Hotel.

The golf course is shaping up well, and all of our members are enjoying a good season.

participation in this annual event. Photos are posted on the bulletin board at the dock.

A reminder to all members that we have a pot luck supper after the Tuesday Races, on the first Tuesday of every month. Members, please come and join in the fun, food and friendship.

The Golden Corral was the venue for our February luncheon on the 18th. As usual, it was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Clear your calendars for March first for our dinner/ dance, which is a Hawaiian Luau at the Guest Pool from 6 to 10 p.m. The food will be catered, the music is live, and there will also be entertainment surprises. Tickets are available from Fina Cucalon at the dock on Tuesday thru Thursday from 2 to 4 p.m., or call her at 478-2261.

Helga Lieb, our dock master, is continually teaching and certifying new sailors, and is thankful for the friendly, helpful members in our club. Come on down and join us!

January turned out to be one of the coldest months on record with temperatures in the low thirties for some days.

This condition is not favorable for snorkeling activities.

We had planned trips to Peanut Island and Ocean Reeff Park, but they were cancelled due to the cold temperatures.

In early January, the activities committee met to formulate plans for the next few weeks.

We decided that since the weather was not conducive for snorkeling, it was suggested that we do parks in the local area instead.

On January 1, we had what is known as a "Pot Luck" dinner. It was attended by nearly every club member, which leads me to comment that nothing brings out people more than the promise of good food. The good food, of course, is provided by the members creating a great variety.

On January 16, we held our regular membership meeting presided over by our re-elected President, John Odoardo.

Sandy Wynn, our Treasurer, gave a very detailed report on our finances.

Kate Odoardo gave a report for the activities committee offering trips to Lion Country Safari on Friday, February 6 and Loggerhead Park on Friday, February 20.

Sue Bently has resigned from the position of Recording Secretary and the report was read by Joan Turner.

An open discussion began after all the committee reports on the destination for our annual out of country snorkeling trip.

A relatively new member,

Kay Martin, suggested the West Coast of Mexico, but I pointed out that Mexico's west coast does not have reefs.

Ray Cook proposed going back to Rowatan, but did not get much traction.

I offered the Bahamas with little response.

Nothing has jelled yet, but I think that at the next meeting, something will be decided, and I shall report this in my next column.

See you by the sea.

The activities at our Somerset Tennis Center are in "full swing" once again since the start of the new year. The Tennis Club held our annual breakfast meeting and, with no other nominations from the floor, Alan Cutler will remain Continued on Page 41

Who Says We Have to Take It?

I am referring to State Farm's decision to dump close to one million Floridians. whose home insurance is what company. A few facts:

- Home insurance is with a "pup" — State Farm Florida Company.
- State Farm Florida's home insurance business is thus closed out while auto insurances are moved to "State Farm Mutual." This meant that, while disposing of home insurance policies, which carry risks from hurricanes, auto insurances will remain in effect.
- State Farm Florida the "pup" — decided to discontinue the issuance of new homeowner policies or renewal of existing ones in Florida, therefore, after three straight, mild hurricane seasons with minimal wind-risk payments.

• After the eight hurricanes in 2004-05, State Farm was given a rate increase in Florida of 52.8%.

- State Farm boasted that its pre-tax property/casualty profit in 2007 was $5.1 billion in Florida.
- State Farm made nearly 40% in profit in 2007.

Here are a number of things that the State of Florida could do in response to State Farm's decision to cancel polices with possible hurricane risks, while keeping writing and maintaining auto insurance policies, even though they are under the name of "State Farm Mutual": • Tallahassee could reject

- State Farm's plan to drop about one million homeowner policies, many of those kept over many years by the Floridian policy holders.
- Tallahassee could change the law, preventing State Farm from dropping homeowner insurance while still writing auto insurance. As of now, it covers about 2.5 million customers.

Tallahassee could — at least — limit the number of policies which State Farm could drop in one year.

Somehow, I doubt that Governor Crist and his colleagues in the state government will have the guts to do anything close to safeguarding the interests of those who now have homeowner policies with State Farm.

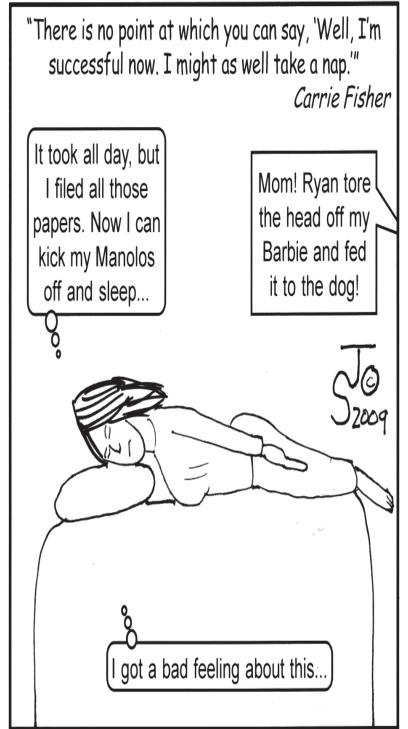

There is, however, something that can be done by anyone who now is in the predicament of losing coverage and having to go out and find another homeowner insurer.

If you have both your home and your car insured by State Farm and you are about to lose the homeowner insurance cancel the car insurance too. State Farm does not deserve your business, since that is now the result of their "pick and choose."

It should also be easier to find an alternative insurer, when you buy policies for both your home and your car.

I would say that time is of the essence. Do not wait until State Farm informs you that they will not renew your home insurance. \Box

Veteran's Aid & Attendance Pension... A Well Kept Secret

Did you know there are financial benefits available for Veterans and/or their surviving spouses for non-service

connected disabilities?

Tens of thousands of our Veterans have earned and qualify for financial benefits that can be used to pay for assisted living or attendant care at home. Sadly, information about the program appears to be a well kept secret.

The Veterans Aide & Attendance Pension provides qualified veterans and surviving spouses, a pension that pays for at-home assistance with daily living activities such as bathing, eating, dressing, transferring, toileting, and meal preparation.

If you are a Veteran or a surviving spouse of a Veteran who served at least ninety days on active duty and at least one day during a period of war and you are in need of assistance at home, you may be eligible.

A Plus Private Care Services is a state licensed provider of in-home personal care services. A Plus works in close cooperation with VetAssist[®], a program designed to evaluate the eligibility of military veterans and their surviving spouses for the Aid & Attendance Pension. In addition to assisting with the application process, VetAssist[®] helps Veterans maintain continued eligibility for the pension.

If you'd like to learn more about the Aid & Attendance Pension, please attend a free presentation by VetAssist:

Stamps in the News Syd Kronish

The month of February will see two important events not connected by time but by association — produced and portrayed by the U.S. Postal Service.

The first is the commemoration of the 200th birthday of President Abraham Lincoln. The second is a tribute to the achievements of the civil rights movement in this country.

The connection is confirmed with the induction of Barack Obama as the 44th President of the U.S., recognized as the first African-American to attain the Presidency.

As previously reported in this column, there will be a four-stamp set featuring Abraham Lincoln in different phases of his life — rail splitter, lawyer, politician, and President.

The rail splitter stamp shows the earliest known photo of Lincoln (1846) working on the American frontier. The stamp showing him as a young lawyer (1858) pictured him in an Illinois courtroom in his profession for 25 years. The photo of him as a politician was taken February 27,1860, when he debated Stephen A. Douglas. The picture showing Lincoln as President is dated November 8, 1863, in conference with Generals Ulysses Grant and William T. Sherman toward the end of the Civil War.

Looking back one hundred forty-six years to January 1, 1863, Lincoln announced his "Emancipation Proclamation," which made a bold step to end slavery in this country. His determination and dedication to this cause has resounded to the present day with the election of Barack Obama.

The second set of six stamps honors 12 leaders of the struggle for civil rights. The stamps will be released on February 21, 2009. Each stamp shows a pair of civil right pioneers instrumental in energizing a movement that spanned generations.

The honorees are: Mary Church Terril, Mary White Ovington, G.R. Clifford, Joel Spingarn, Oswald Garrison, Charles Hamilton, Walter White, Medgar Evans, Ruby Hurley, Ellen Barber, Fannie Lou Hander, and Daisy Gatson Bates.

Most of these names are ones that would not be known to the general public, but are widely known in the black community. Postal Service supervisors did extensive work on this subject, as provided by the NAACP.

First day covers may be obtained by calling the USPS at 1-800-STAMP-24. □

My grandfather grew spearmint plants in the garden. I knew that spring had arrived when the aroma of spearmint filled the air and when the stems and leaves poked through the snow.

The leaves were used to make hot or iced tea. In the fall, the stems and leaves were dried and then the leaves were stripped from the stems and stored in glass jars to use during the winter months.

Spearmint, Mentha Spicata, grows very quickly in the ground or in pots. It likes a lot of moisture, so remember to water during dry, hot spells. Within a month of planting, you can pick five to ten leaves to brew a cup of tea. (Use one tablespoon dried leaves for one cup of tea, or use five to ten fresh leaves to make one cup).

Fresh Spearmint Tea

• Gently bruise or crush five to ten fresh leaves.

- Put the leaves in a china cup.Add water that's been heated to a boil.
- Steep three to five minutes and then strain out the leaves.

Note: Tea leaves are used to tell fortunes. During my working years, I occasionally went with the ladies in my office to a tea room for lunch. Lunch consisted of dainty sandwiches served with tea containing freshly brewed tea leaves. Magnolia, the gypsy fortune teller, read our fortunes from the tea leaves in each of our cups. Lunch cost two dollars. \Box

Consumer Traps and Tips

By Dennis Moore Palm Beach County Consumer Affairs Division Topic: Towing a car without your consent Trap

Bobby Smith, his wife, and six-year-old daughter arrived at their apartment late one evening after attending a party. His daughter was sleeping so he pulled close to the building to carry her upstairs to bed. When he returned to move his car he discovered it was missing. Bobby thought it had been stolen. He immediately called the police department. The police dispatcher advised Bobby that his vehicle had been towed. Bobby couldn't believe it! He was away from his car less than five minutes and it was gone. How could this happen? Who authorized the tow?

Tips

Bobby took a chance and parked in an unauthorized area or "non-consent tow zone" established by his community.

- Know the parking rules of your community and look for required tow-away signs. Be cautious where you park! Your vehicle can be towed without your permission.
- Towing companies must have the permission of the property owner/manager before a vehicle can be towed. It is illegal for a towing company to remove a vehicle without proper authorization.
- To protect consumers, the county has established a comprehensive Towing Ordinance and maximum fees which can be charged when a vehicle is towed without the owner's permission.
- Carefully inspect your towed vehicle for new damages before paying the bill.
 Towing companies must release your towed vehicle within one hour upon your request, 24 hours a day.

Florida is a bit different from other places. Elsewhere the year has barely just begun, but here we're slightly more than halfway through "The Season." Perhaps the best has yet to come! There's Arts and Entertainment inside the gates and beyond in Palm Beach County. Century Village

2/24 — Some Greeks Are Not in The Restaurant Business: Funny man Greg Lewis' one-man show.

2/25 — Irving Berlin's I Love A Piano: This is not just a revue. It's a musical play told more or less from the piano's point of view as it passes through four generations of singers and dancers. Whatever it may be, there are Irving Berlin songs a-plenty, and you can't beat that!

2/28 — Tango Y Mas Too: "An electric fusion of dances," among them some of the best from both North and South America. This was last season's big hit, and it's back — bigger and better — by popular demand.

3/3 — Robert Klein: The veteran comic actor has starred in all the performing arts media.

3/5 — Lorenzo Lamas stars in A Night at the Cabaret. Fernando Lamas and Arlene Dahl's son has carved out his own career in films, television and nightclubs. He just recently completed an engagement at the Colony Hotel in Palm Beach.

3/7 — "The Jewish Princesses of Comedy": Cory Kahaney, Jessica Kirson and Adrianne Tolsch pay tribute to Belle Barth, Totie Fields and other female yesteryear notables of the Yiddish-English language theaters.

3/8 — "The Fab Four":

Bringing back The Beatles. 3/10 — Century Village Orchestra: From the classics though pops and Broadway, loved by all.

3/11 — Swiss Wind Quintet plus a pianist present "classical and romantic selections as well as avant-garde pieces by contemporary composers."

I am happy to report that our "Traveling Tennis Team," a new entry in the Northern Division of the Palm Beach Sr. Tennis League that play on soft courts, is on top of the Standings in our Section as of the posting of this article. This only proves that we have some of the best senior tennis players in this area. We had previously won the Championship in our former League three out of the last four years.

Our trophies are on exhibit in the display case near the right side entrance to the theater. Go take a look. Our other team, which remains in the South Palm Beach Senior League, is currently in second place in their Division. They are led by Capt. Sid Einbinder this year, while I am sharing that position with Jan Roszko on our "Traveling Team." Our residents are encouraged to come watch the matches and cheer us to victory. The schedules for both teams are posted on the bulletin board at our Somerset Tennis Center.

Club events planned in February and March include women's doubles, mix doubles, and men's doubles tournaments, as well as a Club picnic on Duck Island and back to our courts for a day of "social tennis." The dates and time are posted on our bulletin board.

Our membership has now grown to more than 65 residents this year. Those wishing to join the Tennis Club should see Tom Speerin, Tennis Center Director, on weekday mornings by the Somerset pool. He will match you up with other players of your ability level. You will also have the opportunity to use the new ball machine on the practice court to improve your skills. \Box

Theater Review

The American Civil War has just ended. Two veterans, one white, one black, return to Blowing Rock, North Carolina, where two young women and the mother of one await them. Another person is involved in their lives: Pastor Burns, a preacher. This is the setting of Catherine Trieschmann's lyrical drama, The Bridegroom of Blowing Rock, being given its World Premiere production at Florida Stage (Manalapan).

Literally limping home, the white man is embraced by his mother, but he rejects the advances of the pretty blonde who loves him and expected to marry him when the war ended. The black man — it is he whom the playwright calls "The Bridegroom" — as much as anything else is looking for a place to hide, for he's not only black, he's also a Union soldier in Confederate territory. Quite by accident, he meets the dark-haired white girl, who is blind. They soon fall in love. These relationships are the heart of the play. They are made more complicated by the mother, who suffered at the hands of northerners, whom she is prepared to shoot on sight, and by the Pastor, who has a crush on the white girl.

The play is perhaps difficult to follow at first. (I found it so.) Ms. Trieschmann's pace in telling her story is slow, and she writes in the dialect and cadences of "mountain people," as Director Cathey Crowell Sawyer describes them. A bit of mental adjusting is required to get with it. Yet stay with it, for given the ending of Act One, the ending of Act Two is not what one expects. All these characters have flaws, the stuff of ancient Greek tragedy. The black man retreats into storytelling that mesmerizes his young love. The white man retreats from a war he didn't want to fight. His mother is so filled with hatred, she's blind to everything else. The Pastor doesn't know if he's a good preacher or even if he believes in God. They are tortured folk who, as the play progresses, become ever more interesting.

The cast is likewise interesting. Susan Cato, who enchantingly portrays the blind girl, is still a Florida Atlantic University student. By contrast, Lourelene Snedeker, chilling as the mother, is one of the Grand Ladies of our local theater and a recipient of numerous acting awards across the country. Todd Allen Durkin, the Pastor, recently seen in Dramaworks' Moon for the Misbegotten, is also a long-term actor and multiple award-winner. All the others, onstage and in the technical department, do fine work here. This is a play to be seen, but give it time to work its spell on you. Closing date is March 8.

Another World Premiere follows, this one the musical Cagney! From Hell's Kitchen to Hollywood, from song-anddance man to tough guy and back again, his was a unique silver screen story, and here it is. Running dates are March 25-May 3. Meanwhile, Florida Stage's third annual New Works Festival, with Keynote Speaker Israel Horovitz, offers new play readings March 8-10. (For reservations and additional information, telephone 585-3433 or online www. floridastage.org.)

Theater Highlights

Conor McPherson may not be a household name in the United States, but Palm Beach Dramaworks' Producing Artistic Director William Hayes says of him, "The universality of his Irish tales which explore the 'human experience,' along with the subtle poignancy and humor of his character-rich plays, have made him one of the most acclaimed contemporary playwrights." Accordingly, Dramaworks (West Palm Beach) is producing McPherson's The Weir through April 5. The awardwinning play "celebrates oldfashioned storytelling and the sacred feelings that bind old friends." (514-4042 or www. palmbeachdramaworks.org.)

The Maltz Jupiter Theatre (Jupiter) won a slew of awards last season and will probably win more this season for its truly outstanding productions of Noises Off and Barnum. Still to come (March 17-April 5) is the great Andrew Lloyd Webber-Tim Rice musical Evita, with its haunting "Don't Cry for Me, Argentina."

The enterprising Maltz has already announced its 2009/ 2010 season and that, too, is exciting. A World Premiere musical, Fanny Brice: The Real Funny Girl unveils the season November 10-22. In this show, Miss Brice' signature songs, such as "My Man" and "Second Hand Rose" get sung. Neil Simon's Pulitzer Prize and Tony Award-winning play, Lost in Yonkers, is found in Jupiter December 1-13.

Then come some big musicals: Jerry Herman's La Cage aux Folles, yet another Tony Award winner, starts off the new year January 12-31. Tintypes, a nostalgic musical revue of pre-World War I America, marches in February 9-28. Cole Porter's most tuneful, tap- and toe-dancing musical, Anything Goes, comes along March 9-28. Many of Porter's "biggest hits" derive from this one show! This is a season almost tailor-made for Century Villagers! (575-2223 or www.jupitertheatre.org.)

IS YOUR RETIREMENT AT RISK?

Many retirees are concerned about their retirement and are not sure what to do next. For most, their main concern is to keep their money safe and protect what they have. However, they are also concerned with getting a high enough rate of return to keep up with inflation. After working hard to accumulate assets it is critical to protect them and insure they will last throughout your retirement. The financial choices you make today will affect the rest of your life and possibly generations to come.

How Will You Know if You're Making the Right Choices?

The advice from seasoned financial professionals is invaluable; however with today's volatile market and uncertain times it can be difficult to know if the advice you are receiving is the best for you. To insure you've maximized every advantage and minimized every liability, it is often necessary to review all of your options and make sure you are making the best decisions.

A Frank and Independent Second Opinion

We would like to offer you a FREE private lunch or dinner appointment at the Olive Garden or Outback Steak House. After meeting you will have the option to have a FREE no obligation consultation. I will review your investments and provide you an honest, independent second opinion. Maybe everything is perfect and you'll feel great knowing that you've made the best decisions. If not, I can suggest solutions and options that will enable you to continue growing your wealth without taking unnecessary risks.

Here are some of the questions we'll help you evaluate and answer:

- The Stock Market Should you be concerned about the volatility of the market?
- Portfolio Risk How much of your portfolio should be at risk in the market?
- Inflation The impact it may have on your retirement and the financial future for your family.
- Income Taxes Are you paying more than your fair share of taxes?
- Retirement Income Will you have enough income to last throughout your lifetime?
- Minimize Risk What can you do to eliminate future losses in your portfolio?
- Market Fluctuations How to protect your retirement accounts from the downside of the market, and still participate in the upside of the market without unnecessarily risking your principal.

There will be a limited number of lunch and dinner appointments available Monday through Saturday. You will be asked a few questions when you call to make your private appointment with me to insure our time together is well spent.

Call today to guarantee your appointment at a time that is convenient for your schedule. As your host, I'll be responsible for the bill and there will be absolutely no cost or obligation whatsoever. I'd just like to introduce myself and answer any questions you may have about the consultation. I look forward to meeting with you soon, please contact me at your earliest convenience at 888-608-8667.

MANY MORE, SEASONAL TOO!

While I don't want to turn "This and That" into a gossip column (I'm sure Irv Lazar who runs our paper wouldn't approve of it), I must say that writing about morality and fidelity doesn't have the same appeal as some of the tabloids who tell us that a New York City woman found a seven foot python poking its head out of her toilet. The fire department captured the snake, and now she uses her daughter's training potty.

Statistically, it appears that of every 1,000 senior citizens who retire to Florida, 481 eventually move back to their original location. Too bad they weren't aware of Century Village.

It's good to see the walkers and joggers going through their paces early in the morning in CV. To quote Joan Rivers, "The first time I see a jogger smiling, I'll consider it."

"Mensa" is the Latin word for round table, signifying a round table of equals. It's also the name of my club. I have been a closet Mensan for over 40 years. The minority of people who even know what "Mensa" means expect you as a member of an elite club to be a successful person, to be amusing, clever, financially secure and stable.

Consequently it's best that we keep our affiliations quiet, since the majority of us do not fit into the above description. What we can surely do is pass a test. Anyone interested call me at 561-687-3935.

Are you happy when passing a test

To find you're one of the brightest and the best?

- Can you tell me from your heart
- That you feel better to know you're smart?
- If I found no fun at Mensa,
- I'd start my own club and
- call it "DENSA." □

Arts & Entertainment

Continued from Page 45 turned to The Cuillo Centre for the Arts (West Palm Beach). In my original review, I recommended it for Jewish audiences who hail from New York, yet I personally found too much of Mr. Ehrenreich's show to be like a lot of home movies: entertaining to a point, but after awhile, repetitive and predictable. The performer promises new material this time around. (835-9226 or www.cuillocentre.com.)

Kravis On Broadway (Kravis Center, West Palm Beach) serves up a real feelgood musical, Legally Blonde, March 17-22. Based on the 2001 film of the same title, this became a big Broadway hit. It tells the tale of a spunky young girl who's spurned by the guy she thinks she loves. He's going to Harvard, he says and, well, she's just not bright enough for him. Determined to get into Harvard too, she proves she's not so dumb after all, even learning in school to believe in herself and who her true love is. (You see what a good education does for you?) It is a cute family show! (832-7469 or www.kravis.org/ broadway.)

Caldwell Theatre Company (Boca Raton) introduces

Dangerous by South Florida's own Michael McKeever. This World Premiere updates "Les Liaisons Dangereuses," deconstructing it and restaging it "in the seductive and decadent underworld of 1930 Weimar Germany," in the words of the publicist. The classical story is one of sexual depravity and the sly "games" some people play in their quest for power and pleasure. Mr. McKeever is as versatile and prolific as any contemporary playwright and I, in common with so many others, always look forward to seeing what he's done this time. February 22-March 29 are the running dates. (877-2445 or 561-241-7432 or online: www.caldwelltheatre.com.)

In the Rinker Playhouse of The Kravis Center, the Capitol Steps performs. The troupe has played in Century Village, but the Washingtonians continuously renew their material so that their brand of political satire is always fresh. They're on the boards February 22-March 11.

Music and Dance

Palm Beach Opera presents Mozart's The Marriage of Figaro February 27-March 2. (832-7469 or www.pb opera.org.) Ballet Florida dances Cinderella March 6-7. (659-2000 or www.ballet florida.com.) The Estonian National Symphony Orchestra plays three works, including Rachmaninoff's Second Piano Concerto and Sibelius' Second Symphony March 8 at 2:00 p.m., part of the Regional Arts Series. Marvin Hamlisch appears on March 8 at 8:00 p.m. Opera star Jose Carreras sings March 9. March 10, "Adults at Leisure Series" presents "Singin' the Benny Goodman Songbook" at 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. March 10 at 8:00 p.m. ushers in the Dallas Symphony Orchestra with Pinchas Zukerman conducting and playing violin. Stravinsky, Schumann and Brahms' Double Concerto are the featured works. That's also part of the Regional Arts series. Bob Lappin and the Palm Beach Pops pay tribute to Nat King Cole March 11-12. (832-7677 or www.palm beachpops.com.) Kodo Drummers get percussive March 13. There's a fundraiser March 14 benefiting the Young Friends of the Kravis Center and featuring a ballroom dance competition. Prices are high: it's a fundraiser, but food-tasting and wine sampling are included with the event. March 15 welcomes The Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra which salutes "Oscar" and "Tony," from Hollywood to Broadway. Again under the auspices of Regional Arts, Pianist Andre Watts performs March 23 at 2:00 p.m. Another salute to Hollywood brings together such luminaries as Michael Feinstein, Vic Damone, Jane Russell and Jane Powell with Turner Classic Movies' Robert Osbourne hosting. That's March 23 at 8:00 p.m. All of the above programs are at The Kravis Center.

Museums

The Norton Gallery of Art (West Palm Beach) has its main event of the season right now: "Georgia O'Keefe and Ansel Adams: Natural Affinities" is how the museum is titling the exhibition, which runs through May 3. (832-5196 or www.norton.org.) The Society of the Four Arts (Palm Beach) has several displays ongoing. "Great Expectations: Aristocratic European Children in Portraiture" and "A Wonderful Time: Photographs by Slim Aarons" can be seen through March 1. March 14-April 15 view "American Impressionism: Paintings from the Phillips Collection."

Many venues have interesting lecture series, including the Kravis and the Norton, but several March lectures at The Four Arts may particularly appeal to our residents. March 17, Ayaan Hirsi Ali speaks on "Clash of Civilizations." March 24, New York Times columnist Maureen Dowd shares the stage with Allessandra Stanley. Their topic is "Politics and Pop — Pop and Politics." March 24 welcomes Isabella Rossellini, the daughter of Ingrid Bergman and Roberto Rossellini, whose subject is "My Mother, My Father and Me: A Life of Humor." (655-7226 or www.four arts.org.) \Box

"Where Early Birds Catch...A Bite & Brew"

tio Bar & Grill

From the Desk of State Representative Mark Pafford

In January, I was called to Tallahassee for a legislative special session to address the multi-billion dollar budget deficit Florida is facing. In the end, the Legislature passed a $2.8 billion budget deficit-reduction package.

In good conscience, I was not able to vote for a budget that could jeopardize the future of our state and its citizens while House Leadership refused to discuss the elimination of corporate loopholes and special interest tax exemptions. Some of our most vulnerable populations, such as our children and elders, were left out in the cold due to cuts in funding for vital programs and services.

One particular cut that I spoke out against on the House floor involved cuts to the Community Care for the Elderly (CCE) Program which provides adult day care and home care. CCE is an essential program that helps elders stay in their homes and avoid being placed in a nursing home. Thankfully, Governor Crist vetoed almost $91 million in cuts which restored funding for numerous programs including the CCE Program.

The 2009 Legislative Session begins on March 3rd and the financial forecast for Florida continues to look bleak. During discussion of the budget for 2009-2010, I plan to work diligently to explore alternative revenue streams and advocate for an evaluation of Florida's current tax structure. I feel that only by doing this can those in the Legislature say they have done their due diligence to balance the budget while putting the needs of our citizens in the forefront. \Box

Consumer Traps and Tips By Dennis Moore

Palm Beach County Consumer Affairs Division

Topic: Service Contracts Trap

"I was refunded only $18.32 instead of the full $360." Mrs. C thought she would save money and aggravation by signing a service contract for the major appliances in her home. Four months later, when she requested a service call for her stove, the service technician was rude and provided no real service at all.

She cancelled the contract, expecting to get all her money back, not realizing there was a charge per service call. She also didn't know that her refund would be pro-rated to a percentage of the unearned part of the contract, which was less the cost of service calls. She was surprised and really upset when she received that small refund check!

Tips

The consumer was unaware of some of the important parts of the contract she signed. She realized she knew almost nothing about the company even though the salesman was extremely nice. Most service company contracts include details of what is covered and what is not, and also include terms and conditions with a penalty for early termination of the contract.

- Research service maintenance companies before signing a contract. Check with neighbors, and contact PBC Consumer Affairs to get a "Business Information Report" about the company.
- Be savvy. Get quotes from two or three companies and compare them carefully.
- Take the time to read and review all terms, service conditions, refund/ cancel-gave the go ahead. A half hour later, the job was done.

However, after the first rain, the driveway's shiny black finish was gone. Mr. T called the business and was told, "The cellular number you have dialed is no longer in service" and Mr. T had no way to get in touch with Mr. Nice Guy.

Tips

Mr. T was looking to get the job done quick and cheap! He could have saved himself time and money by:

- Being wary of anyone soliciting home repair work by distributing flyers.
- Always getting at least two written estimates. Verify that the business has an active city/county business tax receipt.
- Making sure the contract spells out the terms completely and shows the name of the business and street address.
- Never paying cash or a large upfront fee to "get more materials." You'll never see him again!
- Asking for proof of worker's compensation insurance. You may be responsible if someone gets hurt on your property.

Topic: Gym Memberships Trap

Debbie called Consumer Affairs for help in resolving a problem with the gym ten minutes from her home. For the new year, Debbie planned to become a lean, muscle machine. When she visited the gym and toured the facility, her salesperson promised she would have her own personal trainer and the club would be open 15 hours a day.

Now, the gym is always crowded, trainers are rarely available, and the facility is only open 10 hours each day. Debbie wants her money back! Tips

If you are considering joining a gym/health club for the new year, here are some tips:
Check with your doctor first. Some medical problems (i.e., back issues) may limit use of the gym's equipment or classes.

vices are charged separately from the contract price. Make sure all "promises" are written in the contract.

- If you change your mind, the contract can be cancelled within three business days after signing the contract. Send the written cancellation by certified mail.
- Even though gyms may reduce their hours or move their location, you may not be eligible for a refund. Read your contract carefully.

If you have a complaint, visit www.pbcgov.com/consumer or call 561-712-6600. (In Boca/Delray, call 888-852-7362 toll free.) Topic: Driveway Repairs Trap

Mr. T from Boynton Beach was tired of looking at his faded black top driveway. He remembered the flyer left at his front door, "Driveway Repairs...FREE estimates." He called and spoke with a nice guy who said he could come right over. The nice guy said he had some materials left over and could do the job today for a special cash price. Mr. T, sensing a good deal,

- Many consumers don't read the contract before signing. The contract should clearly show the duration of the agreement, monthly/total costs, payment plan and the renewal terms. (Some are automatically renewed.)
- If the services of personal trainers are provided, ask when they are available, how often will they work with you, and if their ser-

Message to Lawmakers: The Economy and Jobs

The 2009 Florida Legislative Session gets underway the first week in March, and with a steadily worsening economy, home foreclosures on the rise, property values dropping, and more state-mandated cuts in property tax revenue anticipated, our lobbying efforts in Tallahassee will be more important than ever. County staff has identified 31 legislative priorities, appropriation requests and support issues that we hope our state lawmakers will get behind. Of these, 10 are new, never-before-submitted items.

Our top priority this year is a call for the state to restore consumer confidence through new economic stimulus legislation. A major investment in new infrastructure, similar to what federal lawmakers are proposing, will be a key to Florida's economic recovery. There also should be an allocation of funds to rehabilitate aging water and wastewater systems, complying with overflow issues and promoting source water protection.

We would hope our state legislators will support efforts to create a Glades Utility Authority. This is an independent entity formed in partnership with the county and the cities of Belle Glade, South Bay and Pahokee to consolidate debt and initiate a fair and affordable system of collections for customers of the county-operated Lake Region Water Treatment Plant.

The proposed inland port (inland logistics center) in the Glades would provide thousands of new jobs and a strong tax base for the entire southcentral region of the state. The county's Economic Development Office is seeking $350,000 to develop an agricultural business training program for small growers in the Glades region. Program participants would learn how to use hydroponic systems to grow alternative and specialty crops, then effectively package and market their produce.

Our lobbyists will be asking for a modification to the eligibility criteria for Qualified Target Industry (QTI) businesses. The QTI tax refund is a tool available to encourage quality job growth in certain areas. The amendment would provide a grace period for expanding companies to hire new employees, as required by their QTI contracts. Additionally, we are seeking an expansion of the boundaries of the two designated enterprise zones in Palm Beach County.

Other new priority issues include requiring federal background checks for vehicle-for-hire drivers/employlaw enforcement ees. screenings for summer camp personnel, and the creation of a prescription drug monitoring program. This tracking system would allow pharmacists to log prescriptions that are controlled substances into a state database, helping medical professionals block attempts by abusers from obtaining prescriptions from multiple doctors.

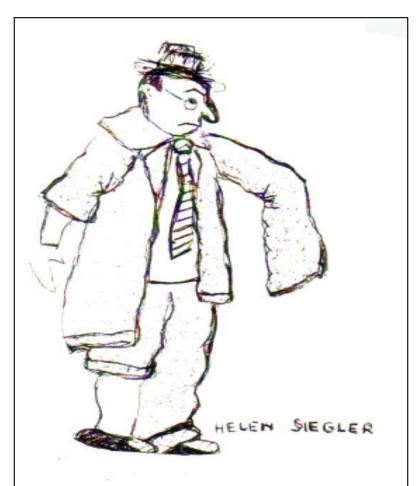

Our final new priority this year concerns homeless housing assistance grants. We'd like to see the rules amended to allow these monies to be used for acquisition of property that has an existing structure on it. Right now, homeless grants can only be used for new home construction or repair of existing houses. In today's market, there are numerous apartment complexes that could have been purchased to provide immediate housing for the homeless. This change would add to the available housing stock for the homeless and enable the county to qualify for additional state funding.

Of course, there will be the continued push for the elimination of unfunded state mandates and cost shifts, and we will be pursuing a number of important appropriation requests, such as the Lake Region Water Treatment Plant ($3.5 million), Lake Worth Lagoon restoration ($5.46 million), beach and inlet management projects ($12.3 million), the Loxahatchee River Initiative ($4.28 million), a new DMV service center ($1.9 million), and various road widening projects ($ 15 million), not to mention a dedicated funding source for South Florida Regional Transportation Authority (Tri-Rail) operations.

As always, I welcome your comments and questions. Please feel free to contact me or my staff at 355-2202. \Box

He shopped everywhere for his wedding, But suits ran so high in each store. "Outrageous!" he cried. "I am betting I can sew a great suit she'll adore – Not perfect, but too late for fretting!" And this is the suit that he wore.
