Lt. John Hill led us in the Pledge of Allegiance

Dave announced that we have a quorum of 135 delegates signed in.

We had several speakers here that are running for office or are in office now; Judge Evans-County Court; Judge Alvarez-Circuit Court; Judge Goodman-Circuit Court; Judge Martz-Circuit Court.

Please lock your vehicles and do not leave things around in your vehicles for someone to take. Jewelry was reported missing between Feb-July. A broken window, nothing taken.

The Seacrest compound and maintenance shed was broken into and it is ongoing so cannot talk about it.

Someone asked why your report does not mention that art work was stolen from the wall of the club house It was reported to WPRF and security. "That was last month or the month before, I have only this month's report . We have increased the patrols by 50%".

Corrections to Minutes: Olga said she asked if punch list has been addressed (page5).

Someone said there were 32 drains not 20 and were $60,000 each not $6,000 total of $192,000 (page 4).

Marsha Ziccardy said what she was concerned about was losing regular spots(page 3).

Minutes were accepted as corrected

Treasurer Report: Report was accepted as written.

President Report: The Rental Compound with Seacrest will be $1,500 at 3% each year for 5 years.

Officers: Phyllis Richland reminded everyone that on Thursday July 12th in the Party Room at 9:00 AM Fire & Rescue will give a demo-CPR-mock heart attack. There will be a light breakfast.

Veterans are no longer meeting on Wed. at Vista therefore on August 23rd at 9:30-11AM in the Party Room there will be an informational Seminar on Veteran's Benefits and Medicaid. If you require a private meeting, you can have a free visit lasting at least 2 hours.

Marsha Ziccardy asked if there will be a fire drill as we never had one. Yes we will for safety reasons. Marsha said UCO should honor the fire personnel for all their good work.

Barbara Cornish would like to thank people for their support on July 4th.

Unfinished Business: None

New Business: David Israel said we have two contracts $65,000 plus with warranties from Anchor Marine and D.S. Eakins. A motion was made by Paul Goldfarb and seconded by George Franklin to accept contracts. Lots of discussion. Paul Goldfarb amended motion to include an independent engineer at a fixed rate of $5,000.00. There were 14 opposed to this. Majority was for. Motion was approved the amended motion was passed.

Motion was made by Paul Goldfarb and seconded by Jerry Karp to use $100,000.00 from the general LPL Account. All approved. Motion passed.

Motion was made and passed to pay with transferred funds from General LPL Account for Bath & Borden project.

There was a lot of discussion by the Treasurer regarding shortfall of funds. She said she would like each and every account to have a surplus of at least 1 month and we do not have enough money now. (See attached 1A-4A) She proposed the following:

- Where will it come from? Take from Reserve Account $102,000.00. No cash in reserve maybe $20,000.00.

- Line of Credit Mr. Black opened last year. We then take reserve fund and put in a restricted account with a 4 1/2%.

- Consider taking mortgage out.

The consensus was not to take out mortgage. As there was no % on taking out a mortgage and most of the delegate walked out, this was tabled to next meeting.

Dave said he also ran some numbers (see enclosed) and there is a surplus now of $260,855.68.

AMR contract signed not for $2.25 but for $1.454.

Lawsuit threaten by Andrew Waldman to sue us over the letter to the editor by Florence M. Molinaro if no retraction. It was asked what our attorney thinks. Tennyson said not to retract it is a SLAPP suit in his opinion to scare us.

The letter records request was asked if Tennyson got letter. Dave replied that we are awaiting his response. Lots of discussion. Jerry made a motion to accept to release info and Ed Grossman seconded. There was not a vote because most delegates had gone home. Ed Grossman said that according to 617.1602 (sub section 2) these records should be released.

David tried to explain that they are public record for anyone to access and it would be a lot of hours for someone to print and that he is waiting for Tennyson to respond to the request.

CERT: Jackie Karlan said to have all Condo Association fill out form after a emergency and call the numbers listed. Please read Emergency Information. Any questions please call me, Jackie Karlan 478-8679.

Dave said the 2012 Investigations as of June were 35 Sales and 31 Rentals.

Good & Welfare: Has anyone done anything about the dead fish floating around in lagoon. How polluted is the water? Could the spraying to control the weeds and grass along shoreline have anything to do with it. We will be hearing soon from engineer on lagoon.

Phil asked about the hole in the fence. Has it been repaired? Dave replied that no one wants to take ownership of the downed pole. I have been very active about it. Information for everyone is FPL flattened out the fence. We are still working on it.

Question was then asked if the work in the Club House has anything to do with the dead fish. It was thought it does not because this work in the Club House was done before the dead fish appeared.

Motion to adjourn was made by Barbara Cornish and seconded by Phil Shapkin. Adjourned.

President's Report

DAVID ISRAEL

On July 19, 2012, the President of the United States, Barack Obama, visited our Village, and spoke in our Clubhouse. UCO was in a number of ways instrumental in making this happen, and I consider it a major feather in the caps of our volunteers, and undoubtedly a highlight of my presidency of UCO.

W.P.R.F., Inc. and UCO were intimately involved in coordinating with the President's advance team. The logistics of planning a Presidential visit are immense in scope. Every square inch of our Clubhouse facility was taken apart—every file cabinet and every piece of equipment, and some of it may have had to leave the premises. Secure phone lines were installed.

Every inch of the President's path was identified, as well as all of the necessary private spaces, such as a spot for the Secret Service team. Special efforts were made to reach and pull in local dignitaries and arrange for various special rooms for the President and his travel companions. The traveling White House press corps and National Press, not to mention our own UCO Reporter, had significant technical and space needs; and the local media had to be vetted and credentialed. The setup of the Party Room for the speech was decided in meticulous, painstaking fashion. And of course there was the natural impulse for the Clubhouse hosts, under the direction of Eva Rachesky, to clean and make every nook and cranny look impressive for the big day.

As you can imagine, every politician and old friend within a hundred square miles was calling to ask for a ticket, and there were only so many tickets to be had. On top of that, the White House was clear about the types of people it wanted in the room—a diverse group of "regular" people for the camera shots. It should be made clear that over 300 tickets were reserved for our residents here in Century Village.

One interesting tidbit. All of the nonsecurity advance staff were volunteers. They were people who have everyday lives around the country—graduate students and working people from various states. They are connected with the Obama camp in some way, perhaps through past campaigns, and they bank their vacation time to be able to arrange Presidential events across the country. Their travel expenses are paid, of course, but they aren't federal employees. And in our case they were experienced, capable and great to work with.

I must make special mention of the folks who worked so very hard with short notice to make this event happen: Sam Oser and Mae Duke, regional and local Democratic Club chairs; Ed Black, chair of our Security Committee; UCO VP Barbara Cornish, who was key in setting up the bus system to move hundreds of visitors and residents from Anshei Sholom to the Clubhouse; Eva Rachesky, W.P.R.F., Inc. VP and Recreation Facility Site Manager; Dee Albert, CENVILL chief of IT (Information Technology) Services and her staff; and last but not least, Major Jeff Koronec, chief of our Allegiance Security guards, who worked with the Secret Service team to coordinate assistance with security issues.

So if you were lucky enough to score a ticket, I hope you remembered to leave your cell phone at home or put it on vibrate, unless you wanted to be remembered forever as the person whose phone rang during the President's speech. And if you did not get a ticket, we're sorry. There was limited seating. Our local technicians from UCO and W.P.R.F., Inc. tried hard to arrange for transmission of the event simultaneously on Channel 63, our local closed circuit Community TV channel, but were finally unable to. In due time, however, the meeting will be shown both on Channel 63 and on the C.V. Blog.

VICE PRESIDENTS' REPORTS

DOM GUARNAGIA

June was a very wet month especially in Northern Florida where Tropical Depression Debby dropped up to twenty (20) inches of rain. Our waterways are generally filled to no higher than six (6) inches below the top of a dam or weir that is connected to the Lake Worth Drainage District and Clear Lake on the south side of I-95. Concerns arise as to how our waterways and those newly installed French drains are handling all this heavier than usual run-off. When the ground becomes saturated from several inches of rain, the percolation, or absorption rate is greatly reduced and puddles that hopefully dry in twenty-four (24) hours result. The term French drain (capital "F" and small "d") was invented by Henry French in 1859 in Concord MA (Lawyer and Assistant Secretary of the Treasury) to drain fields for farming. The modern French drain employs perforated pipe pitched toward a stone-filled pit where water is absorbed into the underlying soil and eventually into an aquifer below. Depending upon the soil mechanics or properties such as sand, clay, silt and / or stone, the rate of absorption can vary greatly.

There are lessons to be learned every day and the Bath / Borden St. intersection, where an excavation was carried out as an exploratory exercise to expose a hole in the pipe below, unfortunately escalated into a full blown project where the hole in a 54" diameter coated steel corrugated drain pipe connected to the lake behind Stratford A could not be easily capped to prevent the backflow of water from the lake, keeping the pit and the pipe full of lake water and fish. We are researching, for future occurrences, and there will be some, to insert a slightly smaller pipe into the corroded one from the lake to the catch basin, thereby eliminating the need for excavating as a cheaper more effective solution.

Our infrastructure, i.e., roads, plumbing drains, electric service and in many cases concrete elements such as upper floor walkways and stairs; stucco covered soffits, wood building elements, such as fascia boards, are in need of inspection, replacing, rebuilding and upgrading resulting from living in a sub-tropical environment with high levels of humidity. Changes in our lifestyle regarding the need for an increase in the availability of electric service, with the elimination of aluminum wiring, is being studied and information will follow.

Even though many people feel nothing much happens in the summer in the village, the wheels keep moving. This is the time when many repairs and upgrades are done. Eva and her staff at W.P.R.F are extremely busy, she has been working at getting bids to improve the pools—Camden pool and buildings will be next to be worked on. If you are around the Clubhouse, please take a look of the shelving for the papers that Eva has put in. It's just beautiful.

Think about how we are enjoying the life we have here. Most of it is afforded to us by the people who volunteer. Give a thought to this, UCO Office, UCO Reporter, Cops, Library, and Bingo: All the people that volunteer for committees and give of their time. And let's not forget you're Association Boards who work diligently to keep your building going. Yes, the volunteers can be out there enjoying their leisure time but, they are working for us. So when you see a volunteer remember they are helping us to have this lifestyle we enjoy.

The next time you see an usher at the theater or the party room it would be nice for you to say, "Thanks for your help". It will make their day as pleasant as they have made yours. I would like to THANK all the volunteers that run the bingo all year and say, "Enjoy the summer, you deserve it and you will be missed--see ya in September".

A little note about the Fourth of July: The clubhouse had Mr. Karaoke and the residents enjoyed dancing and singing their favorite tunes as well as listening to fellow residents sing. W.P.R.F supplied the refreshments and snacks for all. I was delighted to see that Mr. Dave Aronberg, who's running for State Attorney, came to our party. It was a pleasure to see that so many residents came out to enjoy this July 4th. In addition to the clubhouse there was celebrations at Somerset (Scuba Club) and Kent pools.

Barbara

On August 23, 2012 in the party room (no snacks this time) there will be a seminar about medicaid and veteran's benefits. The law firm of Shalloway and Shalloway will be there to present this most important discussion. Since Vitas can no longer have a representative from the V.A. on Wednesday mornings, I thought it beneficial for all to invite the Shalloways to our village to discuss some of the most important issues affecting our greatest generation and those that came after them.

There will be no soliciting of business from them but if after the seminar anyone has personal questions, the Shalloways will speak to them privately and are offering a free 2 hour visit in their office with an attorney.

his seminar will be advertised in the Palm Beach Post starting on Monday, August 13 in the local section and in Nostalgia America Magazine. We have been assured that the ads will specify restricted access to our village only. But if you have a friend that reads this and wants to come and hear what they are saying, you can invite that friend and call them in. There is a great deal of money available to our veterans, their spouses, their widows, their handicapped children. There will be information about how medicaid can help in times when assisted living is required and also home help.

There are also veterans of Korea and Viet Nam who are in need of help now. There are benefits that no one is talking about but the money is there and if you qualify you can get it.

Please come and bring neighbors and friend on August 23 in the party room. This can prove to be one of the most informative and important seminars we have ever hosted.

Thank you all and I hope to see you in August.

When I was getting ready to write this article, I was interrupted by an old girlfriend from my youth. Her name was Chicken Pox the first time I met her. She has now changed her name and it is Shingles and it has had me flummoxed for almost two weeks now. It was on my face and eye. The rash is gone but the eye is extremely light sensitive. Mollie and I are living in our cave with all the blinds closed, even some of the hurricane shutters are closed. I, therefore, have told Toni that she can use up the rest of my space this month. I hope all will be better next month.

BECOMING A VILLAGER

Please allow me space in your newspaper to tell my story of becoming a villager.

Waking up on day two as always at 5:30am, the sights and sounds of my surrounding was not unlike an April's fool prank perpetrated by my loving wife. There from my patio looking east -- yes I know it was east because looking through the early morning mist rose this gigantic bright orange ball of fire, yes that was the sun -- all around was the sound of birds singing sweet melody pure and true as if to say "this is my message to you, don't worry about a thing 'cause every little thing is gonna be alright." Thanks to Bob Marley's three little birds by my doorstep. This was not an April's prank and I was not dreaming my second day and I was gracefully kissed by the sun.

The next few days I spent exploring, basically to a meet-the-villagers tour. The villagers I have met so far were extremely warm and welcoming. Oh, I met ladies with such strong and beautiful names as Sarah, Maria, Anna, Rose, Michelle and Julia. I even met Bill Clinton.

I lift my hat to the elected officials and army of volunteers that manage this village. You should be proud of this great accomplishment. Around water coolers and dinner tables there is a debate taking place in this election year --- COLLECTIVISM VS INDIVIDUALISM. Yes, you are truly the "village of the century".

*Sincerely,
Walter E. Turner*

TO THE PRO-ACTIVE COMMITTEE

To the Supporters of the Pro-Active Committee.

I have now bought and lived in West Palm Beach, Century Village since 2006

I live in Chatham E and I am very pleased with my Association and my neighbors.

I am the Treasurer and also in charge, as my President is a "snow-bird" and goes back to his residence in Kentucky, during the summer months.

I was never a golfer and did not buy here for use of a golf course (in fact, in 2006 the property was closed) and has remained so. I do not live in Greenbrier, Southampton, or Golf's Edge, where the property looks out on the existing, closed golf course grounds.

This question of "in perpetuity" is, as far as I am concerned, a lost cause. I, for one will not support the Pro-Active Committee in trying to fight and sue Mr. Waldman and the expenses it will incur. We do not have this kind of money available.

As I see it, any person buying and owning a property, that has not made a profit, eating up taxes and lying idle, is not a business person. The fact that Century Village residents could keep and maintain a profitable golf course is a thing of the past. Mr. Waldman should have the rights to do with it as he wishes.

Reflection Bay seems like a good idea to improve and enhance this vacant area. The people fighting this right now, will not be around for many more years to see the finished, operable and enhancement this will make. Giving to all residents a big plus advantage, shops, parks and beautiful scenery, instead of what is there right now.

I hopefully will still be here and so will the younger inhabitants of this village that are now moving in.

ONE YEAR ANNIVERSARY

Mr. David Israel,

One year ago I got up at a delegate meeting and said what you did in one year what the prior Presidents did not do in 17 years. You used this line for your re-election. I asked why you did not ask me, you told me it was a matter of public record.

Here's some news for your information, at the May delegate meeting I told the delegates that there is a broken pipe on Bath & Borden. You said it is a sinkhole, and they were all over Florida. That statement was never on Ch. 63 or in the Reporter.

I went back to U.C.O. to tell them about securing the area around the broken pipe. I guess I embarrassed Roger, so he went out with another man in a golf cart, got 2 cement pails with posts in them and I helped them secure the area. SALISBURY H provided a roll of caution tape.

I went back to U.C.O. on 5/21/12 asked Dom and Roger what was the status of the broken pipe. Roger told me they were going to take pictures. I did not hear from them, I called 4 days later, the answer I got was there were fish in the pipe.

Went back to U.C.O. met with your dream team Roger, Dom, Ed. I told them it's a broken pipe again, waited another week. Mr. Fernando Pieras and I put up a protest sign with the AMERICAN FLAG. Unit owners were signing it to fix the problem. One person at U.C.O. admitted he tore it down. When I told them this happened, Bob Marshall came in and said I was talking too loud. He should have stayed and listened. I only worked on tunnels and sewers for 40 years so I guess I don't know what I am talking about.

Now the best thing you fellows can do for the best of the Village is leave the keys to UCO with Ron at the front desk and leave. Let the women run UCO. I'm sure they will do a better job. God Bless.

SUMMERTIME – FEWER ACTIVITIES?

My wonderful staff and I at the Reporter are far from taking a vacation on these hot, hot summer days. We've been very busy preparing this August issue. It was supposed to be a very lazy and easy summer issue, but with vacations and my co-editor Joy's hip operation, everyone else (as I said before) has worked long and hard to prepare this issue. I want to especially "thank" our consultant for working very long hours to get the articles and help everyone else working on this month's paper. I feel most people have no idea as to what is involved in getting the UCO Reporter to our residents each and every month.

We need cooperation from our residents as to "letters to the editor" and articles of interest to all. If you have a few hours to answer phones or provide other services in our office, I would appreciate you letting us know. We also need you, our readers, to get your business providers to advertise in the Reporter. We have a large population available to take advantage of their services. Remember, it is your paper.

CORRECTIONS:

RESIDENT ACTIVITIES

4TH of JULY CELEBRATIONS

Century Village, along with the rest of the nation, celebrated America's 236th Fourth of July with snacks, swimming, dancing and fun conversations with friends. WPRF sponsored the party at the Clubhouse Pool as it does every year, taking care to keep the festivities going, replenishing snacks and visiting with residents.

WPRF's Eva Rachesky attended the Clubhouse pool party, as did UCO President David Israel.

Mr. "Jack" Karaoke himself kept everyone singing and swaying to the music. A UCO reporter was spotted dancing with Dancing Queen Yolanda X from Kingswood E, who, like most of the lovely ladies we interviewed, asked that their first names only be used. Aren't mysterious women the most exciting kind?

The sweltering heat (it is Florida summer, after all) didn't stop the laughs and good fun. A lively group from the Windsors (M and C) and Coventry J arrived at the pool at 9 am to guarantee a table or a seat in the shade.

Jody and Nonnie from Camden also braved the heat to get a 9am leg up on the most desirable seats. Others got to the party by 11:15 am, all ready to celebrate and enjoy a perfect afternoon.

Lots of laughter, splashing in the pool and lots of liquid refreshment and an occasional hint of a breeze marked the day!

Thanks to WPRF and patriotic Century Villagers for a successful holiday celebration! And many thanks to the UCO Reporter's Howie Silver who spent the whole day taking photos and capturing the happy spirit of the day.

A smaller, yet just as spirited a group found themselves at the Kent pool. This party began later in the day and included music by Tommy and Dolores. This is really a great way to spend the 4th, good fun with friends and neighbors. This is Paradise.

CERT JACKIE KARLAN

Submitted by George Loewenstein

CERT is a national program which was developed and implemented by the City of Los Angeles fire department in 1985. In 1994 the Emergency Management Institute expanded CERT throughout the U.S. Our goal is to provide Century Village with a dedicated and trained team of volunteers to aid in recovery from the effects of any disaster.

Each month our chairperson, Jackie Karlan, submits an article to the UCO Reporter under the heading of CERT. Many readers may wonder what CERT is, what its function is, and what training its members have. Hopefully, by reading this, everyone will have a better understanding and appreciation of our organization.

In 2005 as I was campaigning for the presidency of UCO, I heard then COP Major Evelyn Liebowitz speaking at a delegates meeting, and suggesting that a CERT team would be of great value. I took that to heart and upon election, Vice President Phyllis Richland and I made contact with the United Way, which agreed to sponsor a class in our village, and provided an instructor and material.

The course consisted of twice a week training for one month totaling 20 hours, and during that period we were trained in the following areas: disaster preparedness, fire safety, disaster medical operations, including triage, light search and rescue operations. In short, in the event of a disaster, it is our mission to (1) assess the damage, (2) provide immediate aid to the injured and (3) to inform the county fire rescue where help is needed and what type of help.

Therefore we document everything that we saw and did in the event of a disaster. We continue our training at every one of our monthly meetings. Unfortunately, because of budget restraints we are unable to have any class for new trainees here in Century Village this year. However, there are classes being given in other locations in our county and we encourage interested residents to sign up.

Insurance

TONI SALOMETO

Since we're all discussing what we do during the long hot Florida summers, let me tell you what we do in the Insurance committee.

Now that all of the renewals have been processed and most of the books have been distributed; what we really do is try to straighten out the office so that we can begin again at the end of the year. The old policies for 2010 need to be scanned and kept digitally so that if there are any questions, regarding coverages and the like, it can be researched. It's important that good records are kept and paper is too hard to deal with.

We also work on new ideas to save you premium dollars. This year we're working on seeing if certain two story Associations qualify for an upgrade on their Mitigation reports. This project is ongoing and the upgrades will be part of our renewal package in January, 2013,

We've also been interviewing prospective agency candidates for our renewal. It is time consuming, but necessary to get the best match between our insurance needs and agents with the ability to satisfy them. In addition to Brown & Brown, we think we have two other good candidates—more to come on this.

But our most important job, no matter what time of the year, is to serve our unit owners with the best service, information or claims handling. Claudette has many years of claims experience, she'll kill me if I say how many, and will ably get you through the maze of the legal system. She is a terrific resource we have at UCO and we're lucky to have her.

Remember to call 561 683-9189 X 150 or 131.

Summer is usually a time for special projects. However, our department continues with high volumes for this time of year, covering staff vacations and welcoming 2 new members to the team who are in training has kept us hopping at the winter pace.

Now to our project. Our President, David Israel, began the President's Meetings of small groups for more personal discussions. This has proven so successful, I thought I would take a page from his book.

So many officers have come to Investigations since their election indicating no processing information was passed down to them. Therefore, we have compiled a Board Members Review agenda. The seminar contains everything you wanted to know about: Sales &

Hi folks hope everyone is enjoying their summer wherever you are.

Just an update to go over on a few subjects we have discussed before. First so you know, there has been a HUGE Jury award against the Coca Cola Company -- to be exact $21.5 Million Dollars! You read right! One of its employees was talking on a HANDS FREE cell phone and driving a Ford Focus automobile. Needless to say there was an accident and when the dust settled the award was HUGE. Now Coke is going to appeal the verdict. We'll see what happens. So as a reminder -- DON'T talk on a cell phone and drive at the same time! Pay attention. If you must use the phone, pull into a safe area and then make your calls.

Every Wednesday at 9:30 am an excursion bus leaves the club house on a journey to either a shopping mall, flea market or the Lake Worth Beach. Our passengers can stroll around the mall, enjoy culinary treats and take advantage of the store sales. Monthly sun worshipers can swim and bathe at the beach. The casino, stores and more restaurants will open in September.

The excursion bus itinerary is published in advance. You must sign up at the guard desk in the Clubhouse. Many of our buses are filled to capacity so please be courteous and remove your name if you need to cancel. Someone on the waiting list can then fill your seat.

The Transportation Committee consists of 13 volunteers, 9 of the members are bus riders. We welcome you to our open meetings on the second Tuesday of the month. They are held in the Rental Application process requirements, Power of Attorney, review of investigation reports, Right of First Refusal, hardship/handicap, census requirements, over 55 requirements, unavailable association officers, over 55 registration (management company), and Annual Meeting Mailing. Handouts will be provided.

Attendance is by invitation only as we are inviting 2 members from each board for a total of 16 at each session. Our first meeting will be held on Wednesday, August 8, 2012 at the UCO office and will run between 10:00 AM & 12:00 noon. Space is limited and with 309 associations it will take many months to complete. So, if you wish to attend sooner, call the UCO office to be put on a future list and we will advise you of the next dates.

had people here do that as recently as last month. Guess what? Yes the car was stolen. Thanks to our good friends at PBSO, recoveries and arrests were made. Okay, so these are some tips to keep you safe and secure Please respect and follow them.

On another note:
PLEASE do not leave your vehicles unlocked and items on the seats. Close your windows, lock your doors, remove electronic items and anything else that may be attractive to a passer-by. Above all, DO NOT leave your keys in the ignition!! You laugh. We have schedule as needed. We are always striving to improve our service. Please remember, we are under contract with Midnight Sun Bus Company and must also adhere to their guidelines.

A Special Thank You to Kathy and James Hickerson for their good humor, advice and assistance. They have both been by my side since March helping to dispatch every excursion bus.

WANTED: C. O. P. VOLUNTEERS

You've seen the Sheriff's car, flashing yellow light and Citizen Observer Patrol on the side. Your neighbors and friends are driving through Century Village to enhance our security. Our responsibility is to observe and report suspicious activity. If we see something not looking right or someone in trouble, we call 911 or the Sheriff's Department, depending on the occurrence. We do not confront people directly. We cannot issue a summons or carry any weapons. Occasionally, someone flags us down to ask a question -- usually directions. All C. O. P. participants volunteer for a one three-hour shift per week, attending one monthly meeting in the clubhouse. All participants are trained before going on the road. The Sheriff's Department provides the vehicle and oversees the program, confident it will deter criminal activity.

At a recent meeting, someone told us that some apprehended criminals said they avoid Century Village because of the flashing lights. The Palm Beach Sheriff's Office relies on our volunteer members to provide the extra eyes and ears to assist the agency. Crime in our area, inside and outside the Village, is higher than it has been in years. In a recent 30 day period, 10 cars in Century Village were entered and valuables stolen. (LOCK YOUR CAR).

Ideally, our car should be going through Century Village 24 hours a day - 7 days a week with a driver and observer. Obviously, that's a dream, but we want to get closer to it.

Each car should have a driver and observer. Eight shifts a day, 2 people for 7 days requires 112 concerned residents. PLEASE BE ONE OF THEM. This is an ideal way for seasonal residents to serve their community. We currently have 20 seasonal residents, most of whom have gone north already, thus depleting our numbers. We need more permanent residents.

Show a commitment to Century Village. Letting the other guy/gal do it is not the way.

Call Palm Beach Sheriff's office @ 433 - 2003 for information and sign up as a driver or observer.

Scrub

By Lanny Howe

When we were kids, we used to play a game called Scrub. This was before the era of Little League baseball, Pony League and Babe Ruth League.

The field was in the schoolyard, which was right in back of our house. It wasn't much of a baseball field. The grass was patchy and lumpy and there were stones here and there. There were somewhat defined base paths but no bases. For bases you made do: a rock for first base, a board that was lying around for second, maybe someone's unused fielder's glove for third and something similar for home plate. There was a chain link fence backstop, but it was a good twenty feet in back of home plate.

We never had enough kids to make up two nine-player teams. There were usually only about nine or ten of us, total—sometimes fewer. So we played an abbreviated game of baseball (or softball) called Scrub.

In Scrub, there was a batter, a pitcher, first baseman, second baseman, third baseman, left fielder and center fielder. These seven were the minimum. If you had more kids, you could have a shortstop and/or a catcher. We seldom had enough kids to have a right fielder, but that was okay. Most of us were right-handed, and righties tend to pull the ball to the left, so we just said that right field was out of bounds. If someone was left-handed, the outfielders moved to center and right, and left field was out of bounds.

There were no well-defined boundaries except right at the bases, of course. We made our own line calls, usually by consent, sometimes through argument. Occasionally the arguments would turn into fistfights, but these never lasted long and certainly never got as out of hand as the arguments adults have had at some Little League games.

The rules were simple. The batter tried to reach first base safely, just as he would in ordinary baseball. If he succeeded, he could bat again. There was no umpire to call balls and strikes, so the only strikes were when the batter swung and missed. You were out if the hit ball was caught in the air or you were thrown out at first. The object was to see how long you could remain the hitter.

As you can guess, next to being the batter, being pitcher and first baseman were the favorite positions. When the batter was out, he went to center field, the center fielder moved to left, the left fielder moved to third, and so on "around the horn" as they say, with the first baseman becoming the pitcher and the pitcher becoming the batter.

We had no fancy equipment, and there were no uniforms. Bats were often split and taped, balls were taped too if they were coming apart. Not every kid would own a glove, so we would share them.

Games were not scheduled. Whoever showed up played. It wasn't Little League, but let me tell you, we had a lot of fun.

Will you tell us about you? What kinds of games did you play as kids? I know the kids from Brooklyn played stickball, but we didn't, so I don't know what the rules were.

Think back to some of the things you did when you were young. What was it like to see the Yankees or the St. Louis Cardinals play baseball? Did you play marbles in the dirt? It doesn't necessarily have to be a sports thing. Did you build "forts" in the woods? And what about you girls? What were you up to? Perhaps you will share some of your memories with us?

It can be only a sentence or two, or a paragraph, or you can write something longer. Just keep it under 500 words. E-mail it to: <ucoreporterwpb@gmail.com>, attention: Lanny Howe. Please include your name, address and phone number. We think there are a lot of old memories and stories out there that your fellow readers would be interested in.

TRI-RAIL™

Connecting you to South Florida

RIDING THE RAILS

by Dolores Caruso

In my years working in New York City, I took various rail routes going into work beginning with the Pennsylvania RR to Penn Station. I hopped the subway E-train to 50th to the advertising area. A few years later, I took the same route only adding the Grand Central Station shuttle to Madison Avenue to the radio/TV corporation where I was now employed. Those days of traveling are now long gone (or so I thought). This past June, my husband Tom and I experienced similar train travel accompanying our friend, Marilyn Pomerantz, to Ft Lauderdale Airport for her flight to Canada via the Tri-Rail system here in Florida. Once again I was riding the rails—deja vu!

Our trip began two days before when we went to the Tri-Rail station to purchase our tickets. We talked with Michael (the agent on duty) who explained the Easy Card (similar to the Sun Pass). The cost was $2.00 which is good for three years. We paid this along with the purchase of a senior discount ticket which was credited to the Easy Card (minimum purchase had to be $5.00 or more). We could travel whenever we wanted. On the day of travel we arrived for the 9:06am train. We clicked our card on the computer that is set up on the platform, boarded our train for our approximate hour trip, arriving at Ft. Lauderdale Airport Station. We again clicked our cards and boarded the airport shuttle bus that was there, arriving at the airport about 20 minutes later. We said good-bye to Marilyn at the Air Canada gate and were back on our way to return home (same route but in reverse). The best part of the entire day was not suffering through traffic, tolls and plain stress of driving to the same destination the Tri-Rail took us to.

Tri-Rail was the easiest and best care-free way of traveling. I suggest all of you to experience what we did. Ease, comfort and convenience is the best way to describe the Tri-Rail System -- so go get your Easy Card and make the most of your excursions.

JULY 4th Celebrations Around the Village

Staying cool in the Clubhouse pool on the 4th of July – Paradise!

At the residents pool, a group of lovely ladies with the holiday spirit.

ANSHEI SHOLOM PARTY

There was a 4th of July celebration held at Anshei Sholom congregation. It was a barbecue cooked and served by the members and held inside for the comfort of those attending. The food was good, the company better and a good time was had by all.

Trying to hide in the middle of the group is our very own Reporter Editor, Myron Silverman a member and volunteer at the Anshei Sholom celebration.

Indoor celebration at Anshei Sholom for the 4th kept everyone nice and cool. Food cooked and served by volunteers, these residents at Anshei Sholom enjoyed the holiday celebration.

What Do We DO All Summer? What the snowbirds miss out on!

By Lanny Howe

Once again we are in the middle of summer, and once again, no doubt, our snowbirds are asking themselves, "What do they DO all summer long down there?" Well, it isn't as bad as you might think. I'll let you in on a little of it.

To begin with (please don't take offense), it's a whole lot quieter. Peaceful is the word. Traffic is a lot lighter. It's a pleasure to take to the road now, and there's less need to time it so you avoid rush-hour traffic and stops by the school buses. Gone are the long waits at restaurants. Prices are lower, and there are more Early Bird choices.

It's hot—no question about it—but we cope by staying indoors during the hottest part of the day. In the early morning we may walk or bicycle around the Village or play tennis. It's comfortable out on our patio in the early evening. Several of us gravitate to the patio around 5:00 p.m. One may begin by reading a book or magazine. Then a neighbor comes along and they get talking, perhaps about the poor New Yorkers suffering through yet another heat wave. They should come down here, cool off, and enjoy the nice sea-breeze. It seldom gets above 92 degrees here.

The summer and early fall is hurricane season, and we've had our share of some bad ones, Frances and Jeanne in 2004 and Wilma in 2005. But what we're finding is that you're not exempt from natural disasters no matter where you go nowadays. Tornados are occurring everywhere. Last year a hurricane spawning tornadoes roared through Springfield, Mass. and up through Vermont. A friend of mine moved to Colorado Springs, "the perfect spot," she thought, only to be seriously threatened this year by wildfires. "I am on one side of I-25," she says, "and the fires are right there on the other side."

For the past several summers lack of rain has been a problem here. Not so this year. The water levels are high.

How many of you have said to yourself, "I wish I had read that book, but I never seem to have time"? My brother had been after me for some time to read Pillars of the Earth. This book is huge, like War and Peace. Well, welcome to Florida in the summer, when there is time. "Forced relaxation" during the hot part of the summer day is one of our great blessings in southern Florida. I'm halfway through the book now.

Finally (though I really hate to rub it in), you never know what will drop in our lap in the summer. Such as a visit by President Obama!

A theme of this issue of the Reporter—secondary to the Obama visit—is what goes on in the Village in the summer. There is more than one might think. UCO and many of your association directors keep active. At least two associations are getting new roofs, and it seems to me that the grass, really green this summer, is getting mowed at least every other day.

Have I made the case for the year-rounders? Okay, I'll admit I've been somewhat stretched in doing so. I'll admit another thing, too. The quietness in the Village begins to get on our nerves around October, and we're mighty glad to have you snowbirds back! Let's hope we all have a wonderful summer.

New Ambulance Service to Start

By Michael Rayber

The new service is actually the old service. AMR will take over transports soon. AMR is actually the continuation of the original ambulance service that was here when Century Village started. The original service was bought out approximately six times and is now part of a 3.2

billion dollar conglomerate. Many of the people at AMR have been doing transports here in the village for over 20 years. I have personally worked for AMR for over 20 years. I am mostly retired now but still give them a few hours a week just to stay busy.

The important thing to know about the ambulance and your insurance as well as the Century Village contract is that not every trip is covered. If you dial 911 your insurance will cover with a deductible. The contract with AMR covers this deductible. If the fire department decides to transport you, the contract has no effect. The problem comes in when you are sent home. In order for medicare or your HMO to cover you there must be medical necessity. If the hospital has treated you and released you, medicare feels you have been cured and may not pay. Just because the hospital has called an ambulance does not mean that you need one. Make sure the discharge planner has verified that your insurance will pay. Be aware that when you are having health problems there are often multiple ambulance calls. Just because the hospital sends you home does not mean that you are cured. Many people come home and wind up calling 911 that same day for a return trip. This can go on for many trips until they send you to a rehab facility. All of these trips will add up to large bills for return trips unless there it is found to be a medical necessity.

JOINING AGAIN TO BETTER SERVE THE RESIDENTS OF CENTURY VILLAGE WEST PALM BEACH

AMERICAN MEDICAL RESPONSE®

American Medical Response has a long history of providing quality Emergency Medical and Non Emergency Medical transportation for the residents of Palm Beach County. AMR will again be providing that same service to the residents of Century Village West Palm Beach. Below are some of the most commonly asked questions regarding your transportation agreement with AMR.

BEGINNING JULY 1, 2012, AMR WILL BE YOUR CONTRACTED AMBULANCE PROVIDER. IN ANY MEDICAL EMERGENCY ALWAYS CALL 911

Palm Beach County Rescue will respond and assess your medical condition. If your condition is life threatening (Advanced Life Support), Rescue will transport you directly to the most appropriate hospital. If your condition is serious but stable (Basic Life Support), Rescue will contact AMR, who will then respond and transport you to your hospital of choice (as long as you are stable). ALL EMERGENCY ambulance transports are a covered service under your contract guidelines. ALL EMERGENCY trips provided by AMR for Managed Care residents will be completely covered and will not require a co-pay or out-of-pocket expense.

AMR also provides for Non-Emergency Ambulance transports from Hospital to Hospital, for higher level of care and transports to Skilled Nursing or Rehabilitation Centers, when medically necessary or when covered by your insurance. Non-Emergency trips provided to uninsured residents or for non-covered services due to lack of medical necessity or insurance denial, will be provided to the residents at a 40% discount off of our customary charges.

IT WILL BE THE RESIDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO MAKE SURE THAT YOU ARE TRANSPORTED FOR NON-EMERGENCY TRIPS IN ONLY AN AMR AMBULANCE. AMR will not cover residents for transports by any other private or public agency.

As ALWAYS, if you have any questions, please contact Sarah Kirkwood at AMR (561) 262-0556.

Answers to Quiz in the July 2012 UCO Reporter on the Beginnings of Century Village

By Lanny Howe

Note: There were no entries submitted with all 10 questions answered correctly. Nobody even answered 8 of the 10 questions correctly, or 6 for that matter. The truth is we didn't receive any entries! But here they are for those of you who are interested.

1. The first Century Village was in:
ANSWER: C. Our own West Palm Beach CV was the original one.
2. Century Village was famously advertised by:
ANSWER: B. Red Buttons. There was plenty about this in the July issue.
3. Century Village construction began on or about:
ANSWER: A. 1969.
4. The present kind of buses used within the Village replaced:
ANSWER: C. Trams. You could have picked this up from articles in the July issue, too.
5. The last condo buildings completed were:
ANSWER: B. Dover.
6. An activity that took place on Okeechobee Boulevard was:
ANSWER: D. CV residents riding tricycles on the road. Hard to believe now, isn't it?
7. UCO was formed in:
ANSWER: A. 1982 with first meeting in 1983. UCO was formed more than a decade after construction began.
8. The original name of the UCO Reporter was:
ANSWER: C. The Village Voice

ANSWER: A. The Bilateral Agreement.

W.P.R.F., Inc.

Eva J. Rachesky
Vice President

I'm sure all of us would agree that this has been one of the wettest springs we've had in many years. Along with the rain has come some very heavy electrical activity which has been responsible for a fair amount of damage at the Clubhouse. Lighting struck and burned out a Variable Frequency Drive, which keeps the chillers running, thereby keeping the clubhouse cool. Eight out of eleven modules placed throughout the clubhouse providing Wi-Fi for the residents were burned out reducing us to very limited service. Our phone system software was completely scrambled which ultimately led to a full replacement of the software. Another hit was to the timer for the sprinkler system which is waiting to be replaced. All of this was due to lightning strikes. Please beware of the storms as they roll in. Stay out of harm's way by waiting them out indoors.

The planning of the 4th of July party at the clubhouse sounded like great fun so I decided to stop by to mingle with the residents and had a most delightful time. As I made my way around the pool area the residents had many questions as well as suggestions about various things on the recreation property. Here are the most noteworthy: 1) not enough tables, chairs or umbrellas, 2) paper towels in the bathrooms, 3) better hand driers at the W.P.R.F. pool areas, 4) Emergency phones and Wi-Fi at the pool areas, 5) vending machines at the clubhouse. I'd like to share my responses starting with the tables, chairs and umbrellas.....we have removed a number of chairs and umbrellas from the different pool areas for repair and will have them back as quickly as possible. Unfortunately there are no extra tables to be put out in the pool areas. I will look into the cost of buying additional tables to have on hand. Please note that personal tables, chairs and umbrellas are not allowed on W.P.R.F. property. The issue of paper towels in the bathrooms remains a hot topic. Unfortunately with the theft of paper products the hand driers are here to stay. The good news is that we are in the process of upgrading the hand driers in the clubhouse as well as the W.P.R.F. pool areas. To update you on the status of the emergency phones, AT&T has the wiring in place and we are now waiting on the installation of the emergency phones which should happen sometime this month. Wi-Fi at the W.P.R.F. pool areas is of great interest to many residents and is an ongoing issue discussed at the Operation meetings. I will keep everyone posted as progress is made. Lastly is the issue of vending machines at the clubhouse. Please be patient as I look into how to make that happen.

While the 4th of July party was a great success I was witness to a resident that tripped and fell with a (glass) bottle of wine in hand. I would like to remind everyone that no glass containers of any kind are allowed on any of the pool decks. To keep everyone safe please transfer all liquids to plastic containers.

Please remember to mark your calendar for the presentation of the 2012 -2013 Season in the theater on July 17th at 10:00 a.m. An outstanding season of entertainment awaits you!

NO SUMMER VACATION FOR W.P.R.F. THERE'S WORK TO BE DONE!

By Roberta Hofmann

If you think the folks on WPRF's maintenance team have nothing to do while you are away in the summertime, think again! Around the village you'll find many maintenance workers who are working tirelessly trying to get jobs, both big and small, finished before your return.

I spoke with Eva Rachesky, the Vice President of WPRF, this past week to find out what some of these projects are as Eva is the capable woman in charge. Just look at the following projects.

A project that has already been completed is the installation of a new Chiller at the clubhouse. The chiller, installed at the end of April, is part of an air conditioning system that helps regulate the air temperature throughout the Clubhouse. This job was a big one and the Clubhouse was closed for two days.

One of the smaller projects was to build a newspaper rack. It was placed in the main hall, (ticket), office at the Clubhouse. This will be a convenient place to pick up your UCO Reporter, Jewish Journal, Condo News, Nostalgia magazine, and other publications. It really is so well built that it looks like the work of a cabinet maker. Get your next newspaper there so you can have a look at it.

Minor repairs will be done to the Hastings Roof. Because Ms. Rachesky cannot get tile to match the tile already on the roof, the work plan is to remove some existing tile from the back of the building, (where some tile has been missing since a hurricane), and put them in the front of the building. Then put the new batch of tiles in the back where the miss-matched ones are less likely to be noticed.

The Fitness Center's equipment room will be freshened with a new coat of paint, as well as other rooms that need brightening up. (Be reminded that Margaret Romano, a certified Massage Therapist who has her certification in many areas of massage, will be in the Fitness Center on Tuesdays)..

The Sailing Area will be sporting a new light pole and other repairs as a result of the vandalism that took place there.

The Main Entrance of the theater floor will be re-tiled as it is worn and showing its age.

The Party Room is to have a new sink with a goose neck faucet. This is to replace the present sink that is so shallow.

New emergency phones, (push button types), will be put at the five pool areas owned by W.P.R.F.

PBCWUD, (Palm Beach Water County Utilities Department), is working on a waterline at Somerset. A water main under one of the tennis courts broke causing the surface of the court to collapse.

They intend to re-route the pipes so that they will be more accessible. New wind screens have also been put up for Tennis courts 4&5 as well.

A delimiters (pipes) are to be installed at the south end of the resident pool at the clubhouse so vehicles cannot get on the pool deck.

And.....the big job will be the at Camden pool. On the deck, old expansion joints will be cut and replaced by pavers. For the convenience of those with handicaps, a second entrance will be created with handicap parking right outside the entrance. New exterior lights will be installed and the bathrooms will be redone. All hardware will be replaced; new modern hand driers will be installed, a better armature will be installed on the doors so that they will close fully and automatically. Grab bars will be put in the stalls, and you'll see a new coat of paint both inside and outside. Other work will be done on the exterior of the building.

I found Eva to be a very enthusiastic and knowledgeable VP, a welcome addition to Century Village WPB. She knows what we, the residents of the Village, want and what should be done. Her past experience has resulted in her myriad of good ideas. Eva knows how to shop for what is wanted, and tries to get a good product with the most "bang for the buck". I, for one, really admire her ability and enthusiastic approach.

P.S.. Looking towards the future! See other projects that will also be put before the bid committee for their approval.

SERVICESIrrigation & Infrastructure*DOM GUARNAGIA

Much like the rest of the United States, where an aging infrastructure of roads, bridges, dams and the electric power grid have been neglected for a variety of reasons, most often financial in nature;

Century Village is faced with infrastructure problems, one of which is being addressed and another that require attention will be explained as follows:

- The restriping of resident and guest parking spaces in Phase II : The paving project is continuing. With corrections being made on parking spaces required by Palm Beach County Zoning Dept. to meet the minimum standard width. The process requires painting over the new yellow and white stripes with black paint and making the proper adjustment to each space. Some spaces, though compliant are impacted by an adjacent space that needs inches and the correctly measured one must be shifted to provide room for the amount needed for compliance; basically the 'domino effect'. Be aware of how the process is carried out. We do not want a 3rd striping process to create hardship for all.

- Drains and Swales: The following is the prescribed resolution and an assumption of the process for repairing the 'big hole at the intersection of Bath and Borden Streets, when this article was written on June 26, 2012. Those residents living in the area of Bath and Borden Streets, in the Salisbury cluster, are well aware of a situation that requires the damming of a 54" diameter corrugated steel pipe that discharges run-off from an area stretching from Avon St., parallel to Haverhill, along Bath St., across South Drive into the lake adjacent to Stratford A. Various techniques were applied to prevent lake water from flowing backward into the large drain pipe. As of this writing, the attempt to block the end of the pipe in the lake seemed successful until the extraction of water, which made the submerged end buoyant, and as it began to float it broke the seal created on the sandy lake bed and water again filled the pipe and the intersection became a disaster area. On or about July 16, a diver will have removed the failed blockage and inserted a canvas inflatable bag that was expanded to seal the opening. The length of pipe was cleared of debris for efficient water flow. Pumps running continuously extracted water from both the pipe and the excavated hole, exposing the damaged pipe. The length of pipe from the lake to the catch basin was cleaned and an aluminum pipe inserted into the catch basin, grouted for a permanent seal and a collar attached at the juncture of the new and existing foreshortened pipes, dewatering with pumps continued until the hole was devoid of excess water, thereby allowing the backfill and compaction of soil.

After filling the hole, compacting the soil intermittently, crushed stone was placed for the base of the new asphalt roadway. A finish layer of asphaltic concrete was applied and compressed to 1" wearing surface and the area cleaned of all remaining debris and the intersection returned to normal.

Library Clubhouse

DOT LOEWENSTEIN

Our library was closed, unexpectedly, for two days in June. As it happens, I was out of town and missed all the fun. What fun, you ask? PAINTING! Have you ever painted your house, perhaps just once every five years? Well, back up north after five years passed and we had to paint, I decided it was easier - far easier - to just move. You probably wondered why we came here so many years ago.

Now the secret is out. Most of you will probably agree that having your home painted is one of the worst things to go thru. First you have to move the furniture. Oh.

Our new VP, Eva Rachesky, arranged to have all the bookcases (and their contents!) moved, as well as all the furniture, and now we have a spanking new paint job. Thank you, Eva.

What made it easier was that a couple had volunteered three weeks earlier to remove 14 boxes filled with books intended for the V.A. They not only removed them, they got them downstairs to their vehicle and then drove up to the V.A. to deliver them. Elsewhere in this issue you should find the thank-you letter from the V.A.

Now, as to what is new. Basically, as always, we desperately need Large Print books. We've also been very fortunate to have Jigsaw puzzles with only 300 pieces - easier to just stop by and get three or four pieces in, which is very satisfying to many non-readers, just killing time between buses or before a movie.

And our unseen volunteers, all 29 of them, know their responsibilities and do not phone to ask me what they should do, or when. We used to have a schedule on display, but during off-season so many people take vacations it has been impossible to keep track of who is here on which day. Each volunteer sticks his/her head in the door, decides a few minutes to straighten out the shelves won't affect their lives, and off they go.

THANK YOU ALL!

LENORE VELCOFF

"Mrs. Kennedy and Me" by Clint Hill is a memoir written by the first person of color Secret Service Agent to serve on the White House detail. This assignment occurred under President Kennedy. As Jacqueline Kennedy's personal agent, Mr. Hill provides an introspective look as to what she was really like and details of how the Secret Service goes about protecting the First Lady as she moves about the United States and abroad.

One must remember that this is a biased opinion. It felt as though his 24/7/365 mission was not only to protect Jackie but to see that she was sublimely happy, something neither he nor anyone else could do. It became almost painful to read as Hill ignored his own family to spend time with Mrs. Kennedy. I was left wondering how many of those situations required him to drop everything to run to her side. It seemed to be a one-sided "love affair."

This book also shows how pampered the very rich are and how poorly paid, but dedicated, the Secret Service agents were. Do not expect, however, an exposé. The only revealing detail was a remark President Kennedy made to Hill before escorting Mrs. Kennedy on a trip to Europe. He asked that Hill make sure that Ari Onassis be kept away from Jackie. No explanation. Just that statement. Of course, Hill had no control over Mrs. Kennedy and who she saw. She did not have any contact with Onassis on that trip, but on her next trip she did. Strange request from the President.

The author provides a detailed description of the relationship that developed between Mrs. Kennedy and himself. There were many happy times as well as tragic circumstances. But Agent Hill felt that his efforts to protect her that fateful day in Dallas failed, and he has spent the rest of his life regretting it.

This is a must read for anyone who lived during the "Camelot" era.

LEGAL UPDATES

Local Attorney

MARK FRIEDMAN

This month we examine when the painting of the exterior of your condominium building becomes a material alteration.

A unit owner may generally paint the interior of his or her unit as long as he or she does not change the appearance of the exterior of the building. That decision (unless the governing documents contain their own unique requirements) is usually left up to the unit owner as to the colors he or she will choose. This article is focused on the decisions the Board of Directors must make when dealing with the same situation concerning the exterior of the building.

The Board may always have the outside of the building repainted the same exact same color as the building's current color (which also means the same hue of the color) under its maintenance and repair obligations. It is only when the Board wants to change, update or modernize the color scheme and create a different look that a potential problem arises if the proper approvals are not obtained before the work begins.

The primary case on this issue is Islandia Condominium Association, Inc. v. Vermut, in which the District Court, in 1987, held that a condominium association's changing of the buildings' exterior color scheme from one of multiple-color clusters to one uniform color, constituted a substantial, material alteration. The association, in this case, was ordered to obtain the approval of the members as required under its declaration of condominium.

Since Islandia, the Division of Florida Condominiums, Time Shares, and Mobile Homes has consistently applied this concept in its arbitration decisions, such as when an association painted the condominium building from white to a two-tone terra cotta color. The arbitrator held that the painting of the buildings in this manner resulted in an alteration of the common elements, which required the approval of the unit owners as outlined in the condominium's governing documents. It is also important to note that the Division has ruled against even de minimis changes to the common elements, such as when the arbitrator found that the painting of the lower 36 inches of the carport posts and gutter downspouts from white to yellow was a material alteration.

If your declaration specifically provides the approval requirements for a material alteration to the common elements, that is the approval which must be obtained prior to changing the exterior color of the building. I have seen extreme variations of approval requirements among different clients' declarations; from seventy-five percent of the voting interests to documents leaving the decision to the Board without unit owner approval. Each declaration is unique in that aspect.

If the declaration of condominium is silent the Condominium Act requires the Association to obtain the approval of seventy-five percent of the voting interests of the condominium.

Therefore, when it is time to paint the buildings and a change in color is being considered, the Board must first review the Declaration to determine what vote of approval is required and obtain that approval before the work begins.

POLITICAL UPDATES

Commissioner PAULETTE BURDICK

I am very pleased to provide you with information on a no cost prescription program sponsored by the National Associations of Counties. The program provides discount cards that may be used by all county residents, regardless of age, income, or existing health coverage, and are accepted at almost 300 Palm Beach County pharmacies. Cards are available at various locations across the County including the library on Okeechobee Blvd. just south of Century Village. Cards may also be printed from the Internet at: <http://www.nacorx.org/>. Below you will find additional information on the program:

What It Is: The NACo drug discount card program helps consumers save money on their prescription medications any time their prescriptions are not covered by insurance.

Savings: Savings average 20 percent; some discounts may be more, and some less, depending on the drug and quantity purchased. Cardholders are eligible for higher discounts on a three-month supply of some medications through mail service. Cardholders also can save on pet prescriptions at participating retail pharmacies.

What It Costs: The cards may be used by all county residents. There is no enrollment form, no membership fee and no restrictions or limits on frequency of use. Cardholders and their family members may use the card any time their prescriptions are not covered by insurance.

Pharmacies: Publix, Walgreens and many independent pharmacies participate in the program.

Data Collection: Cardholder information remains confidential.

Drug Distribution: Caremark negotiates with retail pharmacies to offer discounts off retail prices at the point of purchase. The NACo discount card program remains a useful option now that Medicare Part D has been implemented. For example, the card can be used when a Medicare Part D plan doesn't cover a drug.

The program is administered by Caremark Rx, Inc., a leading pharmaceutical services company with broad experience in managing drug discount card programs. Caremark negotiates with pharmacies to offer a discount off their retail prices.

I hope this information is helpful, you may obtain more information about the Discount Card by calling 1-866-489-7594.

I know you are tired of hearing it, but if you have not already done so, please pick up a Hurricane Guide that is now available in many of our area's major grocery stores. There are simple precautions and preparations we should all make before the storm or hurricane warnings are issued.

Please remember, I am here to help if you need my assistance. If I am not available, please speak with my staff. I or someone from my office attends every monthly UCO meeting. You may also call my office to setup an appointment. An estimated 5.6 million travellers landed at Palm Beach International Airport in the past 12 months. Our county is a prime destination choice for the Americas and worldwide. Many travellers prefer to fly over other transportation options. Air travellers know that since the terrorist attacks on 9.11, our airport security measures have increased dramatically. Driver licenses are the most often produced identification for air travel security checks.

That's why I want to share information about Real ID and why you need to have one. Congress passed the Real ID Act to improve the integrity and security of state-issued driver licenses and identification cards. The law is the direct result of the 9/11 terrorists. They were able to obtain valid state-issued driver licenses and IDs which gave them credible identification necessary to live in our communities and board commercial flights. Thirteen of the 18 terrorists lived and hatched their plot in South Florida.

The Department of Homeland Security, through the Real ID Act, requires every person bring specific and original documents to prove birth, social security number and residence. Florida was the first state to issue Real IDs in 2010.

If you're not sure you have a Real ID, just check your driver license. A Real ID license has a gold star in the upper right hand corner, next to the picture of the state. If there's no gold star, you'll need to get your Real ID. Please do not renew your license online. The law requires you do this in person.

Real ID affects everyone. The consequences of not having a Real ID are that you will not be permitted to fly on a commercial flight or enter a federal building in this country after these dates: December 1, 2014 if you were born AFTER December 1, 1964. If you were born BEFORE December 1, 1964, you must comply by December 1, 2017.

I want to help you be prepared. Check our website taxcollectorpbc.com for:

- A complete list of Homeland Security required documents
- A list of agencies that provide replacements for lost or misplaced documents
- Scheduling an appointment
- Posting of real time wait times at all service locations

Also, Real ID document envelopes are available at any of our service centers except Lake Worth. We are not able to provide driver licenses at our Lake Worth location due to space and parking limitations. I encourage you to stop by any other office and pick up an envelope. The envelopes are designed to be a handy tool to help you prepare. They list Homeland Security document requirements and agencies that provide replacements. They are also a great way to store the documents for your service visit.

Please help spread the word about Real ID. If you are a member of a Homeowners Association, civic organization, synagogue or church, I would be happy to attend a meeting, answer questions about Real ID, and bring Real ID handouts and toolkits. Please call 561-355-2805 to schedule a time.

Congressman

TED DEUTCH

There is no question that Congress must pass a permanent, comprehensive solution to our nation's broken immigration system. Given the failure of the 112th Congress to address this and many other issues, I was pleased to see President Obama take new steps providing certain young and upstanding individuals with temporary protection from deportation. These are individuals who as children did not choose to come here illegally. They have grown up as American, and in most cases, know no other home.

I support the President's decision to focus immigration enforcement resources on deporting criminals who endanger our communities rather than members of our military or college students. In fact, this Administration's Department of Homeland Security has increased the deportation rate of criminals to over 80 percent, and in 2011 alone, deported over 400,000 illegal immigrants. However, given the substantial misinformation circulated following the President's Executive Order, I wanted to provide you with some details what this policy actually means.

The President's directive will not allow more illegal immigrants to come to the United States. Only individuals who meet the standards below will be eligible to apply for a 2-year temporary protection from deportation:

- Arrived in the United States as children no older than 15
- Have lived here for at least 5 years
- Are in high school, or have completed high school
- Are currently under the age of 30
- Have no criminal record

Among those who meet these criteria are thousands of hardworking students and heroic members of our military who simply want a chance to contribute to the country they love. Though only action by Congress can provide these individuals with an actual path to citizenship, President Obama's decision is an important step forward and a powerful reminder of his commitment to comprehensive immigration reform.

If you or someone you know could qualify for this temporary protection from deportation, please feel free to contact my office at 561-988-6302. I am confident that this policy will have a positive impact on the South Florida community over the coming months.

Clerk & Comptroller

SHARON BOCK

I'm always eager to find new ways to make the Clerk & Comptroller's office more efficient and save time for you, the citizens of Palm Beach County. That's why I'm pleased to announce a new service that allows you to get wait times by text message or on my office's website.

As you may know, state legislators slashed $2.5 million from the Clerk's office budget for the 2013 fiscal year, which begins July 1. Because of those cuts, the Clerk's office will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, instead of 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., starting July 2. Employees will use the time that the office is not open to the public to process documents, traffic ticket payments and other tasks that had previously been done on overtime after regular hours – a move which will drastically reduce overtime costs in our budget.

This texting service will lessen the effects these budget cuts will have on our customer service and make it easier to do business with us.

By texting CLERKPCB to the number 41411, you'll receive a reply listing estimated wait times to pay traffic tickets at the Main Courthouse in West Palm Beach and at our branches in Delray Beach and Palm Beach Gardens. The service will eventually be expanded to include our office at the West County Courthouse in Belle Glade.

There is no charge for this service, but standard messaging rates may apply. You can also find wait times for free on our website at www.mypalmbeachclerk.com/waittimes.

Keep in mind, of course, that wait times may change before you arrive at the courthouse.

I hope you'll find this to be a useful and helpful tool that makes a trip to the courthouse easier for you. Please let me know what you think!

AROUND OUR TOWN

By Cynthia Kronish

Do you know how much there is to do in our Village? So much that it can keep you busy 24/7.

For starters:

On Wednesday July 4th, we celebrated our Nation's Independence from England which called for parties all around our Village. At the clubhouse pool, we were entertained from 12 to 4pm by our Friday night Karaoke host Jack Kasden. Thanks to WPRF for the snacks. At the Kent pool a couple of Northampton associations celebrated from 4 to 9 pm with music provided by our Solid Gold Karaoke hosts Dolores and Tommy (they also provided decorations).

Everyone brought their favorite foods, snacks and beverages. Many other pools also had parties. All who attended any of these festivities enjoyed this July 4th. Don't forget to check out the pictures of the 4th parties. See who was celebrating.

Want to dance? Every Saturday join the "Dancing

"Stars" and if you like to watch, you can do that also.

Or, go to a show on Saturday instead. Residents can bring a friend for a $8.00 admission charge. The shows this Summer have been great.

And movies, greats ones, every Sunday and Tuesday afternoon, Monday and Thursday evenings. Guests can attend for the price of $3. Better than anyplace else.

Do you like to sing? Or, watch people sing? In the Clubhouse Party Room on Tuesdays, stop on by to hear, Tommy and Dolores lead the group at Karaoke and Jack Kasden does the same on Fridays. Remember Karaoke from 6:00 to 9:00, it's fun.

Bingo is taking a vacation till September. The hard-working volunteers will be back.

Don't forget there are plenty of activities at the Hastings Fitness Club. Stop in to take a class, use the machines or have a swim.

The center is a treasure . No matter what your fitness level, there is something for everyone. ID's required.

Remember to look at the activities list in this month's Organization section. Check out which groups are active in the Summer months and which will resume in September.

To all those who have a birthday or an anniversary this month, we say: "Have many more in good health and happiness" for the years to come. And, to all celebrating a happy event--such as the birth of a new grandchild or a graduation--we also say "Have many more".

One other note: If you have a favorite recipe, please send it to the Reporter and we will take your picture and print the recipe in a future issue.

Until next month when we'll be back with more "Around Our Town". -- ENJOY YOUR SUMMER

Food is LOVE!

by Anita Buchanan

My mother Renee made Avgolemono Soup almost every Sunday. She boiled a chicken for fresh broth and served the chicken in the soup, roughly pulled from the bone. To save time, the recipe here uses the option of packaged broth (Progresso's low sodium is very good). Using packaged broth and leftover or rotisserie chicken will decrease the prep time from 3-4 hours to 40 minutes start to finish.

Ingredients:

- 3-4 Quarts Homemade Chicken Broth or (4) 32-ounce Packages Progresso or Other Low Sodium Chicken Broth
- 1.5 Cups White Rice, Long Grain or Arborio
- 5 Large Eggs, Separated
- Juice from 3 or More Lemons (rolled and pierced for easy juicing)
- Ground Pepper to Taste
- Optional: Cooked Chicken Pieces (from whole chicken cooked for broth, or leftover or supermarket rotisserie chicken)

For some non-Greeks, this soup is an acquired taste (egg and lemon seem counter-intuitive). Avgolemono ("Avgo" means "egg" and "lemono" means well, you know) is a classic light, frothy yet rich and nutritious soup. Renee's recipe can be halved since my mother, like most, never cooked for less than a crowd. Enjoy, and as the Greeks say, "Yassou!"

METHOD

- In a large pot bring the broth to a boil. (The pot should be about 2/3 full of the broth to leave room for the eggs whites.)
- Add the rice, stir, lower the heat and let simmer, covered, until rice is cooked, about 15-20 minutes.
- While the rice is cooking:
 - Separate the eggs and place the whites in a large mixing bowl. Set aside the egg yolks.
 - Juice the lemons. Set aside the lemon juice.
 - When the rice is cooked, remove the pot from heat and uncover to let cool a bit. Stir.
 - Beat the egg whites with portable mixer (or by hand if you want a work-out) until they hold soft peaks. Lower the beater speed and add the yolks. Beat for a moment, lower the speed again and add the lemon juice.
 - On lowest speed, slowly add a ladle-ful of hot but not boiling chicken broth to the mixing bowl. Repeat, adding a few ladles-ful of broth one at a time to the whipped eggs to temper them. Slowly pour the entire egg-broth mixture into the pot of soup, stirring gently while pouring to mix thoroughly. Add chicken as desired or serve on the side. Salt and pepper to taste.
 - Serve immediately. Keep the cover off of the pot between servings or the soup could curdle, and stir before each serving, as the soup tends to separate as it sits. Reheat (do not boil) leftover soup in a heavy saucepan, or in the microwave, on low heat. Keeps well in refrigerator for several days.

Food for LOVE!— Ron's Mild Chili

Ingredients:

1 - lb. Ground Turkey
 1 - Medium Onion halved and sliced
 1 - 8 oz. can of mushrooms stems and pieces
 1 - small can tomato paste
 2 - 8 oz. can of tomato sauce
 1 - 15.5 oz. can of red kidney beans
 1 - tsp. garlic or 1 clove
 1 - 1.31 oz. pkg. sloppy joe seasoning
 A handful of shredded cheddar or any cheese you choose (Optional) Salt & pepper to taste

METHOD

In a large skillet, use 2 or 3 tablespoons oil of your choice (I use corn oil).

Saute onions 'til soft, add ground turkey and simmer 'til all the turkey is browned.

Add garlic, tomato paste and tomato sauce. Add one can of water.

Add mushrooms.

Rinse off beans and add to the mixture. Then add the sloppy joe mix. Stir well, cover and let cook on medium heat for about 3/4 of an hour stirring often. At the end add the shredded cheese.

Have The Conversation:

Help others plan their end-of-life care by taking control of your own

A century ago death happened at home, and all that science could do to keep you alive was found in the doctor's black bag. In the last 50 years medical technology has made it possible to keep someone alive virtually almost indefinitely. But at what cost?

We see in the news what can happen when people fail to leave thorough instructions on how they want to be cared for when they can't speak for themselves. Perhaps because of those stories of anguished families, Americans are more likely to make their wishes known. Still, studies show that less than 30 percent of Americans have gone on record as to how they want to be cared for at the end of life.

The best way to get others to discuss end-of-life care is to do so yourself. Use milestone events—weddings, anniversaries, birthdays, graduations—to hold “what if” conversations. Be sure to include children and parents in the conversation.

Five Wishes (www.aging-withdignity.org) helps people express how they want to be treated if they are seriously ill and unable to speak for themselves. It includes all of a person's needs: medical, personal, emotional and spiritual.

Five Wishes lets your family and doctors know:

- Who you want to make health care decisions for you when you can't make them.
- The kind of medical treatment you want or don't want.
- How comfortable you want to be.
- How you want people to treat you.

• What you want your loved ones to know.

For more information about end-of-life care planning, contact VITAS Innovative Hospice Care® at the Community Resource Center, 110 Century Boulevard (right next to Walgreens) or call us at 561-683-5012. You can also visit us on the web at www.vitas.com.

Keep Track of Your Condo Keys!

By Eric Veltri

I am a recently retired teacher from South Florida who has been a full-time resident of beautiful, well-maintained and safe Century Village for the past several months. Recently, in order to supplement my income and give me something to do, I started watching condos for snowbirds and doing errands. I enjoy the work because it gives me an opportunity to meet new interesting people and make new friends as well as earn a little pocket money.

The other night though, I had a very upsetting experience that I want to tell you about because it was a learning experience for me and hopefully will be one for you as well. A new resident had asked me a few months ago to secure his condo for hurricane readiness (A/C, water and bugs, etc.) until he came down here from up north. I agreed to do this and as we have some mutual friends and interests, we have become friends. He, just the other night, had a delivery and asked me to place the items in his condo. When I did so later that evening I discovered that his flat screen TV was missing. I immediately no-fied him and we agreed that I would notify the police which I did.

When the police arrived later that night, the officer determined that whoever had taken the TV had keys to the condo since there was no evidence of forced entry. The officer advised me that unfortunately too many residents give out sets of keys to too many people and those keys are sometimes used for nefarious purposes.

The preceding took place over a few hours and during a torrential thunderstorm. I finally got to bed at midnight, both physically and emotionally exhausted.

After getting back to my new friend who's TV had been stolen we determined that, unbeknown to us, there were in fact several individuals that had keys to the condo. We also discovered that the former owner suspected that individuals unknown to her may have in fact been living in the unit since she had noted that items in the unit had been moved from where she'd left them.

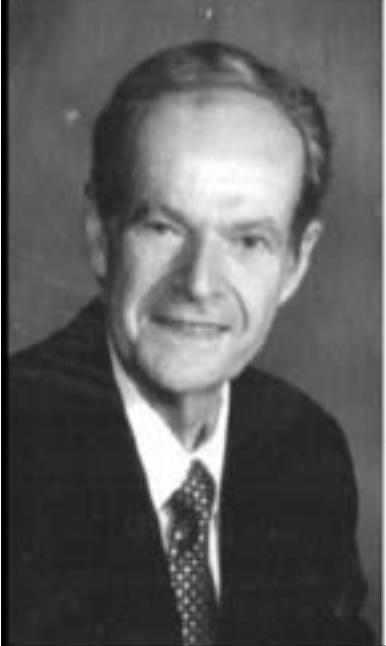

I changed the locks to my friend's condo and my friend has to buy a new TV. I decided to write this story up for the newspaper so that in future this type of upsetting event will be, hopefully, less common.

Here are a few lessons to take away from this incident. When you sell your unit, and we or our children must eventually, insure that all the keys are accounted for and are transferred with the ownership of the unit to the new owner. If you have been designated by a snowbird as a condo sitter then be aware of any other keys that are in existence for the unit.

SENIOR DAY AT THE WATER PARK

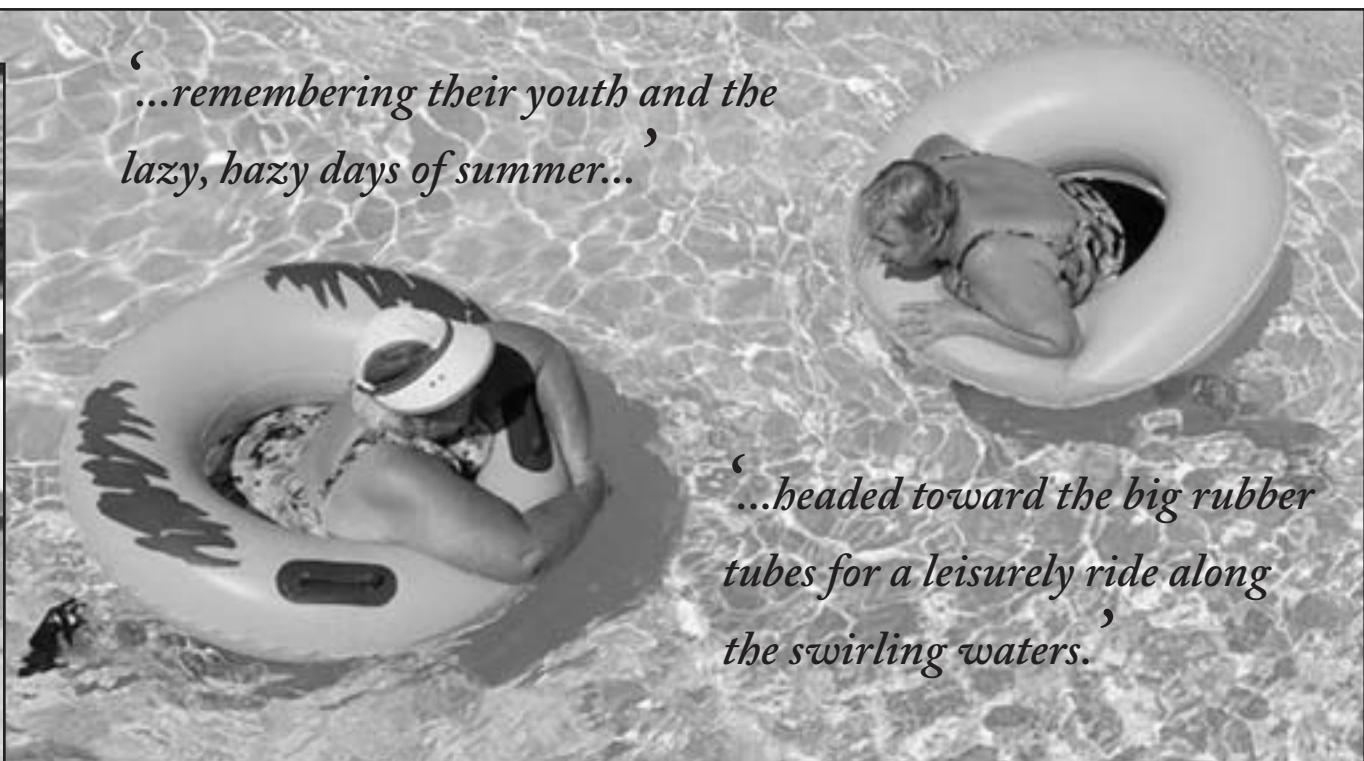

by Roberta Hofmann

At the Nursing home where I work, it is the patients' habit to take a nap in the afternoon. But this particular afternoon was different. They were given the chance to go to a water park; you know, the kind of place that has lots of water slides, big rubber tubes to float around in, swirling water, chutes that spill you out into the water at the bottom, and all kinds of adventurous (and scary) water activities. Some in the group appeared to be a little apprehensive. After all, this IS kids play, and we aren't kids. But what the heck! We are all in our second childhood anyway, so by gosh, we thought, we'd give it a try. A brave thing to say, especially for our friends who were sporting walkers and wheelchairs. But, we were all game! We put on our bathing suits, or whatever we had that took the place of a bathing suit, (some more fashionable than others.), grabbed a towel, and with lots of giggling and laughter, we boarded the bus. We were off for our afternoon adventure!

As we got off the bus, there were some stares and more than a bit of laughter coming from the young whippersnappers. "Huh, we'll show them!" So we went off to the booth and paid the young cashier who was there and guess what? An adult ticket was less than a kid's ticket!! But of course, one of the men in the group was incensed because they didn't give senior discounts! (There's one in every crowd.) Most of the group, remembering their youth and the lazy, hazy days of summer, headed toward the big rubber tubes for a leisurely ride along the swirling waters.

'...remembering their youth and the lazy, hazy days of summer...'

'...headed toward the big rubber tubes for a leisurely ride along the swirling waters.'

Margaret, one of our more adventurous wheelchair group members, spied the tubes and with a gleam in her eyes, commandeered two lifeguards to help her inside the tube. After much splashing, dunking and laughter, Margaret righted herself in the tube and with the able assistance of her young companions started her journey around the water. As their journey continued, they were joined by a bevy of young children delighting in telling Margaret about the park and their swimming skills. A good time was had by all.

Now off to the water chutes. This might not have been the best choice for our group. But, two gents thought they might give it a try. How hard was it to climb a ladder? Both made the climb, not an easy feat in itself, but one climber, Joe, after seeing how high up he was made a decision that it wasn't the day to go down the chute. Too far to the bottom. Much urging from the assembled group could not get Joe down the ladder and he had to be rescued by a lifeguard. The other climber Fred, a little more courageous, (or crazy), made the ride down the chute and said it was an adventure he was glad he hadn't missed.

Where were the rest of the people? I went to look for them hoping they hadn't fallen into the swirling water. Aha, there they were; sitting around tables at the snack bar!

In too short a time our bus had arrived and it was time to go. After gathering our belongings, the exhausted group got into the comfortable air conditioned bus and relaxed for our ride home. You'll never guess what they all did? Talk about their adventures? No, they took naps, and I must confess, so did I.

President Obama Was Here

By Anita Buchanan

Florida is a swing state for both political parties, seniors are a critical constituency and Century Village has always boasted a loyal Democratic following. Yet with all of that going for it, in 40 years not a single American President had ever visited our community – until now. On July 19, President Obama came to Century Village.

A high-profile visit by the world's most powerful leader carries enormous risk and complexity, and much credit goes to the UCO team that worked with the Obama campaign and made it all look easy. Dave Israel, Ed Black and Barbara Cornish communicated non-stop all week with the Secret Service, PBSO and WPRF to deliver a safe, seamless, once-in-a-lifetime experience for a packed house in the Clubhouse Party Room. Five hundred residents braved the rain to wait in long lines for tickets two days before the event and on the big day waited again for hours in 95° heat. Some half their age might not have shown such resilience and good spirit.

Congressman Ted Deutch and DNC Chairman Debbie Wasserman Schultz preceded David Israel who had the honor of introducing the President. When for a moment it sounded as if Dave had been introduced as the President of the United States, he quickly confirmed his real title to shouts of "Four More Years!" David's NSA briefings days served him well, and his TV-worthy presentation was punctuated several times by cheers.

President Obama entered, TV lights blazing, the crowd on its feet cheering and chanting. There was a palpable sense of history and the enormity of the moment. Whatever one's politics, being in the same room with the President of the United States is no small thing. We'll tell our grandchildren and remember the day.

Obama is tall and lanky, so slim and athletic that except for the hair (he has officially joined the Prematurely Gray President's Club), you might think he's 30 rather than pushing 51. After thanking David and other attending dignitaries, he spoke for 40 minutes without the fabled teleprompter. Anyone who follows this election knows the President's platform and doesn't need it repeated here, but a few highlights might capture the spirit of the night.

On the serious side:

- The middle class bargain: "In America, we don't want handouts. We want to work hard, but we want that hard work to pay off with a job that pays a decent wage. You shouldn't go broke just because you get sick. You should be able to send your kids to a good school. You should be able to retire with dignity and respect. And you should be able to provide your children and grandchildren with opportunities you might never have imagined, so they can do better than you did."

- The record: 4.3 million private jobs created since taking office; tax cuts for small businesses and families; recovery of the U.S. auto industry (GM #1 again and the industry roaring back); the constitutionality of the Affordable Health Care Act confirmed by the Supreme Court; veterans coming home after a decade of war and the end of Don't Ask-Don't Tell; 2/3 of Al Qaeda leadership decimated and Osama Bin Laden taken out; alliances stronger and the homeland safe.

- On support for education: "You need a degree to get into the middle class!"

- On being American: "We may get knocked down, but we always get back up."

- Biggest applause points: Jobs plan to put a million Americans back to work, middle class tax breaks, paying down the deficit, saying no to privatizing Medicare, providing Made-in-America tax breaks for companies creating jobs in this country, support for veterans -- and "the unbreakable bond with Israel."

Lighter moments:

- Stepping up to the mike: "That's the most kisses I've ever gotten at any campaign event, and that's only half the group. I might get some more on the way out!"

- Instant response when a loud cell phone rang in the audience: "Who's calling? Is that Michelle? That's because she heard all those women were kissing me. Is she gettin' a little nervous, feelin' a little jealous?"

- The President's praise for the Greatest Generation prompted a gentleman in the

Madeline shows off her special sign

some of the pictures of me will be unflattering."

"This is Century Village. Century Village is legendary!"

The feel-good moment of the night:

Barbara Cornish had planned to be at SeaWorld but stayed in town to complete her work for the President's visit. When David, WPRF's Eva Rashesky and Barbara met with the President before he made his official entrance, Barbara gave him two drawings made by her 12-year-old granddaughter, Madeline, for Sasha and Malia. Obama immediately asked for a note card with the Presidential seal and wrote a personal thank you to Madeline. He kissed Barbara and told her to give Madeline a kiss for him.

And before we knew it, it was over. Gone were the Secret Service sharpshooters on our tall buildings and the somber suited types patrolling on the ground. Gone were the squads of eager campaign volunteers reminding us of what it was like to be so young, idealistic and annoyingly sure of ourselves.

Gone were the armored cars, traffic jams and lockdowns – and the high speed air boat in the lake just in case the President needed an alternative route off the island. Gone were the cameras in the trees and the cables and wires everywhere else. Gone was the disruption, and gone was the special brand of electricity in the air for six extraordinary days.

Anyone watching the TV coverage this past week (the Village looks spectacular) couldn't help but think that this is a very cool place. The national coverage (my children saw it in Boston and a friend called from Cleveland) might even spark new interest from people all over the country looking for a beautifully maintained and affordable place to retire.

The President's visit makes the case that Century Village is a hot community. After all, the President could have gone to many other places all over Florida to court blocks of Democratic seniors, including other Century Villages. But he didn't. Obama came here.

We set up our "Welcome President Obama" camp at 3:30 today on Century Blvd. ("We" meaning my grandbaby Elizabeth and I.) We took some shots of the folks throughout the day and sent them to The Reporter... but just before the President arrived, the Secret Service requested we move to the clubhouse side of Century Blvd. Yikes. Poor Elizabeth... who held out all afternoon to see "Mr. BoBoma"... bless her heart, she is only a three-year-old... just pooped out. So we missed him!!! But I am streaming him live on TV now, and am still so excited about his visit. Photo above by Deb Geller

When the Boss Came Calling

Some Countdown Observations

By Lanny Howe

I first heard the news on Monday, July 16: "President Obama is coming to visit our Century Village next Thursday!"

A sitting President coming here for the first time in our history! And this was our quiet time of year, when nothing much happened? From then on, the excitement grew.

Outwardly, nothing seemed changed on that Monday, but on the "inside" plenty was going on. Ed Black, in charge of our own security, suddenly had another, huge layer of security on his hands, much of it dictated by and arranged for by the President's advance team and the Secret Service. Barbara Cornish, UCO vice president, took hold front and center, working with Ed on everything that needed to be handled. She was the one who realized we would need our Midnight Sun Bus Company's full-size buses for this event and arranged for this. And—needless to say—kept incredibly busy were Dave Israel, who, as the host here would be introducing the President when he spoke, and Eva Rachesky, WPRF vice president in charge of Clubhouse operations. Dave tells you more of what went on behind the scenes in his article on the President's visit in this issue of the Reporter. These four people especially deserve our thanks and great credit for handling this historic visit.

Everything was scheduled. Tuesday was the day to get tickets to attend the meeting, which would take place in the Clubhouse party room, not the auditorium. With several thousand Village residents, there had to be limited seating. The President would spend the morning and early afternoon of Thursday in Jacksonville, Fla., then fly down to us for the late afternoon and early evening. The Clubhouse would be closed on Wednesday to all except Secret Service personnel and any persons they allowed in. On Thursday, the media had to get their big equipment set up in the Clubhouse parking lot between 11:30 and 12:30. Then they had to leave their equipment and clear out while the Secret Service "swept" the area from 12:30 to 4:00.

I was surprised how normal the Clubhouse seemed on Tuesday in the early afternoon. There was hardly a soul in the upstairs corridors, and only one woman working on a jigsaw puzzle in the library. Even downstairs it was relatively quiet. Occasionally a young person, perhaps a member of the Obama team, would walk by. In the main lobby, Ed Black and Barbara Cornish were constantly in a huddle with one or two persons, however, so it was obvious something was afoot.

Other than this, the only thing that seemed out of the ordinary was the slow accumulation of people who quietly took seats along the back wall, the beginning of the lineup for tickets. I saw Carole Szepesi, president of the Computer Club, there. She had been there since the morning. The lineup would soon extend around the corner and down both sides of the south and north corridors—with everyone seated on chairs. How well organized this was.

I learned later that Tuesday's quietness was deceiving. Behind closed doors in the Clubhouse rooms a lot was going. Eva Rachesky's office was a beehive of activity. The Obama team was all around, and Secret Service personnel were everywhere, but largely out of sight.

On Wednesday it was "Everybody off the island." The Clubhouse is on an island, and it and the building had to be secured.

Around 2:00 on Thursday afternoon, I decided to see what was happening throughout the Village and mail a letter in the mailbox by the West Gate. Traffic was light, but when I went to mail the letter, I found the mailbox was gone! And so, I soon discovered, was the mailbox by the Haverhill Gate. Apparently the Secret Service had removed them because they are a favorite place to put a remotely-triggered bomb. The gates were handling a normal amount of traffic. There were only a few cars parked at the Anshei-Sholom Synagogue, and one of our short buses was just leaving there. A footnote: On Friday morning the mailboxes had been bolted back down in place.

Later on Thursday afternoon things really picked up. The buses were bringing people onto the island now, where most had to wait in a second line, mostly under an awning, to be cleared by Security. At this point, Dave, Ed and Barbara were getting conflicting and rapidly changing instructions from about every source. Two cars with them and some other persons inside were supposed to be allowed onto the island at a certain time, but the time was changed, and then it appeared they might not make it in time. I won't quote them, only to say that "frustrating" is a mild word to describe what they were going through. If things related to the President's visit didn't work out smoothly for some of you reading this, multiply your experience by fifty to appreciate what these three went through. But get through it they did, and they did us all proud. Most of this probably just "went with the territory," but it was unnerving at the time. Dave's assessment of the Obama team and the Secret Service (see Dave's article), gives them very high marks.

From this point on, many of you know firsthand what went on, and there are reports by others about it in this issue of the Reporter. Impressive and dynamic are only two of the words that describe President Obama and the evening with him. He was so natural and made you feel at home in his presence—and what a great sense of humor, as when someone's cell phone rang and he asked, "Is that Michelle?"

It was an unforgettable evening. The boss came calling on Thursday. What a privilege for our Village.

GETTING TO THE EVENT

By Joy Vestal

When the President of the United States decides to visit our Village, just imagine the enormous number of details that have to be worked out. One of these details was transportation. Because of the enormous security involved, there was no parking allowed at the clubhouse the day of the event. So what do we do? We turn to our people in charge to come up with a solution. In this case Vice President Barbara Cornish came to the rescue.

Barbara is the UCO vice president responsible for transportation. She said she first learned of the President's visit on Monday morning, July 16. Hardly taking a breath, she got in touch with the President's people. She emphasized to them that our residents rely on our buses and that there had to be as little interruption as possible. Her next call was to our bus company, Midnight Sun. Anna Linley, general manager at Midnight Sun, assured her that they would provide whatever buses and personnel were necessary to accommodate this event. Linley said, "No problem, we will be ready with anything you need." The day of the event, along with our regular buses, they provided six motor coaches with a capacity for 57 riders each.

They had a total of 12 drivers and two supervisors on site. They all worked from 3 to 9 p.m. The cost factor for the buses is being borne by the President's reelection committee.

Of course, in the meantime, up till Thursday evening, our buses had to be kept running. But, Barbara said, the Transportation Committee members had started to notify our riders that there would be some changes. She said that Transportation Committee member James Hickerson was out every morning talking to our residents, along with the drivers themselves, reassuring everyone that there would be as little inconvenience as was possible.

dogs for even more security. But, Linley said, "We are prepared for this. We do military moves and we are certified by the Department of Defense."

So, thanks to the efforts of Barbara Cornish and Midnight Sun, the transportation effort was a success. As Barbara said, "This was a tremendous event for our Village. It was an honor to have the President of the United States here in our Century Village."

A TEAM EFFORT!

By Dolores Caruso

The only word to describe the amount of planning and security involved in President Barack Obama's visit on Thursday July 19th to Century Village is UNBELIEVABLE!

So let's start at the beginning. On Saturday July 14th, Ed Black (chairperson of UCO's Security) received a call from Sam Oser, local Democratic leader, informing him that the President of the United States, Barack Obama, was coming to Century Village. From that minute on, Ed contacted UCO President David Israel, WPRF Vice President Eva Rachesky, UCO Vice President Barbara Cornish (responsible for transportation) and Major Jeff Koronec, from our security company, Allegiance. Instantly, they all started working on their areas of responsibilities. Ed emphasized that right from the beginning this was a team effort.

On Monday, the President's advance team arrived, many of them young people from our area. Along with their arrival came the Secret Service. After touring the clubhouse, they decided that the party room was the best area to have the President give his speech. Ed said no one ever learned the last names of any of the Secret Service. There were no pictures allowed either. They were like invisible people. They were very organized, both the President's team and the Secret Service. They set up the party room, set aside a press area and dealt with all the electrical and technical equipment that was necessary.

Eva Rachesky's hectic schedule started Saturday evening, July 14th, when she received a call from Ed Black that the Village had the opportunity to be host to the President of the United States. The next day Eva welcomed the Secret Service, who always arrive prior to any Presidential activity. Eva took them on a tour of our island and its Clubhouse. They chose the Party Room as having the best access for the President as well as being the most comfortable for all residents to feel as though they were relaxing with a longtime friend. The Service said that they usually were offered a very compact area to host the President's visit.

The Clubhouse was totally closed down on Wednesday and Thursday allowing the workers time to set up risers for the media as well as seating for all residents.

The Secret Service took over as head of security, working closely with our own security as well as PBSO. Metal detectors (airport style) were set up at the main door of the Clubhouse. Tickets were distributed on Tuesday the 17th. Access to the island was closed totally from the 4-way stop by the Secret Service (PBSO presence also). Bus transport was from Anshei Sholom because there was no parking on the clubhouse island. Work was being done to have our Channel 63 back up and running in time for the President's visit. Even with all these hectic details, Eva even drafted her own son Scott to help us with Channel 63. The total prep time for the event took approximately five days.

In the meantime, Major

Jeff Koronec (a 20-year NYPD veteran) from Allegiance, our security company, said our regular clubhouse guard detail, who had already had their backgrounds checked and been cleared before they were hired to work in the Village, worked with the Secret Service and PBSO. "They helped the Obama people and the Secret Service to help lock down the clubhouse and island," Koronec said. "They assisted PBSO with the traffic just like they do on any of our show nights. They were also prepared to help with any emergency evacuation." After all this, Major Jeff said everyone went home "safe and sound by 9:30 p.m."

Kudos to all who worked to make this whole week a success. They are people who need to be recognized for the outstanding jobs they all did. Everyone who attended can truly say that they enjoyed and welcomed this historic event and will remember it for years to come. THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES CAME TO OUR HOME, CENTURY VILLAGE!!
